

Unclean of Life and Heart Unclean

1. Un-clean of life and heart un-
2. The small-est things, the weak-est
3. Yet not in out-ward veils of clean, how shall I in his sight ap - pear! Con-scious of my in - vet - er - ate means, the mourn-ful fast, the plain-tive prayer, his sanc - ti - fy - ing pow - er disgrace, but in him-self the vir - tue lies, th' in - fu - sion of his right-eous - sin I blush and trem-ble to draw near; yet through the gar - ment of his pense, his ef - fi - ca-cious grace con - fer. And through his sac - ra - men - tal ness this foun-tain of cor - rup - tion dries. And sure as I in Christ be-Word I hum - bly seek to touch my Lord. Yet through the clothes the heal - ing em - a - na - tion flows. And through his lieve, I shall a per - fect cure re - ceive. And sure as gar - ment of his Word I hum-bly seek to touch my Lord.

sac - ra - men - tal clothes the heal-ing em - a - na - tion flows.
I in Christ be - lieve, I shall a per-fect cure re - ceive.

(See United Methodist Hymnal no. 729 for complete harmonization.)

WORDS: Ms. Matthew, mid-1760s (Matthew 9:20-21)
MUSIC: Charles Hubert Hastings Parry, 1916

JERUSALEM
LMD

Published by The General Board of Discipleship of The United Methodist Church, PO Box 340003, Nashville, TN 37203. Website www.gbod.org/worship.