SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

At commencement time hopes are high. The desire to achieve dominant. Preparation for a life of usefulness has reached the first major milestone. The opportunity awaiting the members of the class of 1954 is greater than any in memory. The need is the greatest, the problems the most difficult, the hazards the most numerous and the demand for intelligence, skill, fortitude, judgment and sacrifice is unprecedented. Those of you who rise to the demands of the current scene will become benefactors of all the generations to come.

L. J. Gray

High School Principal's Message

To the Seniors I would like to offer my Congratulations. It is, indeed, a pleasure to see such a fine group of boys and girls reach this important goal. I hope that I have helped you to become stronger physically, mentally, morally, and spiritually.

To the remaining students I would like to express my appreciation for your cooperation in making this a successful year. I hope that we, the faculty, have, and will continue to help you to become better scholars and citizens.

Sincerely,

D. D. Saxton

Elementary School Principal's Message

The year of 1953-54 has been a good one in the Zavalla Grade School. You, the students and faculty who have been here at this time, have made it good.

Naturally we do not say it has been perfect. Few things are perfect when operated by human beings. There have been some disappointments, some waste of opportunities and even some misuse of both opportunities and abilities. Yet looked at from an overall point of view, there have been relatively few.

So I hope as time passes you can look back and say this has been one of your happiest years.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

In planning and preparing the 1954 Eagles' Flight, the staff has endeavored to carry out what it considers the one true purpose of a school yearbook: to present an accurate review of all student activities for the current year.

More and more each day we realize how very much our memories of past events can do toward making the present enjoyable. That memories of today may be relived on a tomorrow that you choose for leisure, we present this Eagles' Flight with a sincere wish that while reading, you will recall some happy moment and therefore have a brighter day.

Editor,
Loretta Barge

ADVERTISEMENTS

Be careful with fire when you go on a picnic or a hike in the woods. Remember: the forest is full of living things—birds, animals, trees, flowers, ferns. The forest is a pleasant place and a happy place when it's green. Please do your part to keep it that way. Be careful with matches, cigarettes, pipe heels and campfires in or near the woods. Help Keep America Green.
