My Darling Boy -

Things are going mighty well here in D.O. your mother has been up twice this morning, one time just to sit in the chair + now she is sitting up eating her lunch. She is having her first real meal.

soup, eggplant, custard buttered toast + milk.
She ate the eggplant very sparingly + did not touch the potato. They included. I am amazed that she can be improving so rapidly, but of course very happy about it.

Mr. + Mrs. Bates + mother
R.H. + wife, as well as Mr.
Miss Shart, Mrs. Fred White + Jerry Hill visited her yesterday. The callers did not seem to disturb her at all.
Mildred was here until almost 5 P.M. Hal had spent the day with his mother.
I went to St. Paul's Methodist for the evening service, of course. I went forward after services + introduced myself to a lady who happened to be Mrs. Gordon Jones Virginia Wall's mother-in-law. They introduced me to several & invited me up to a discussion Group meeting, where they asked & discussed questions about the Bible. Refreshments were also served. I enjoyed it very much. The Joneses brought me to the hospital. I Stayed with your mother until 10 o'clock.

I missed you very much in the room last night, but made out all right. I was quite lonely but soon went to sleep. I slept well on the good bed. I hope things were as well with you as with me, my dear.

I came over early, stayed awhile then went to the "chef" for breakfast.

Think I shall go to town this P.M. & get my wallet look for the comfort.

Your mother said tell you that she was doing so well & was being taken care of in such an efficient way that you need not worry one bit about her. Said be sure & not neglect any thing at home to come over to leave your work.
She improves hourly.
She sat on the bed pan, placed in a chair & made out well.

Please bring over her large package from her house - the one that came by mail. also bring my small traveling trunk.
Rosa can find it, in the large closet in the bathroom or in the chiffonade.

Please do not drive
over after night.

I'll let you know
if any change for the worse should come.
I hardly see how it could tho.

I am feeling
O.K. Miss you + home
so much. I love you dearly - your girlie, is always Y.O.
