Relax, refresh...enjoy the Dr Pepper difference

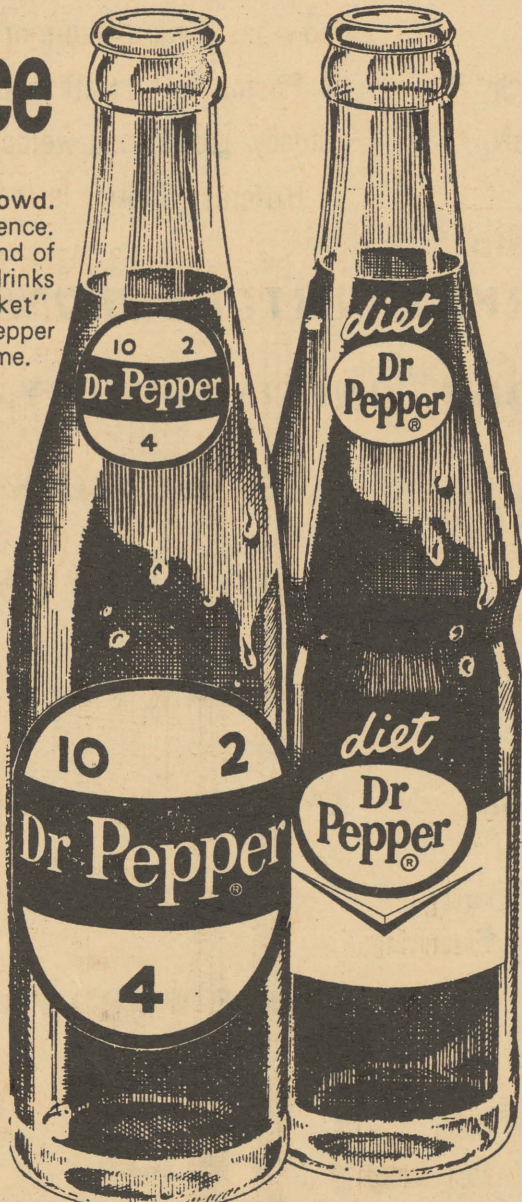

Mark up a strike for the Proud Crowd. They've found the Dr Pepper Difference. Not a cola, not a root beer, but a blend of deep fruit flavors. Makes other soft drinks taste—well, not quite in "the pocket." Regular or Diet. Whether you call for Pepper or Dr Pepper, a perfect score every time.

DR. PEPPER RECIPE FOR THIS WEEK

MARINATED ROAST

- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 2 tablespoons oil
- 1 cup Dr Pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard
- 2 tablespoons catsup
- 1/4 teaspoons salt
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 1 tablespoon vinegar
- 2 tablespoons soy sauce
- 3-4 lbs. beef roast

TO MARINATE: Saute garlic in oil; add remaining ingredients and mix well. Pour over roast in shallow baking dish. Refrigerate 6-24 hours, turning several times. TO COOK: In roasting pan, place meat on large piece of heavy aluminum foil; bring foil up, leaving top open. Pour marinade over meat. Roast at 325 degrees F., about 2 1/2 hours, until tender. Gently turn several times during cooking. (NOTE: reheat sliced roast in marinade). Serves 6-8.
