The Lufkin High School A Capella Choir did a fantastic job of entertaining the guests as they perform a number of special Christmas songs.

Board of Realtors holds installation banquet

Annually the Lufkin Board of Realtors holds its installation of officers banquet in December. On that same night, the Realtor of the Year and the Realtor-Associate of the Year are announced to give recognition and reward for efforts given to fellow Realtors. The entire membership of the Lufkin Board of Realtors Association cast secret ballots to determine the two recipients from among their membership.

1977-78 Realtor of the Year is Geraldine Bradford. She was voted as such for her outstanding work on the Board and for her hard work in helping to help re-write the Board's by-laws. Mrs. Bradford opened her real estate office in 1972 and recently opened a branch office.

Receiving the Realtor-Associate of the Year award was Linda Martin. She became active in Real Estate in 1975 and spent the entire year of 1976 in becoming a "Super Salesman" of real estate. She collected $510.00 from members for the Muscular Dystrophy Drive in one week's time.

Past President, Janie Chappell, presented a silver award to 1977 officers who worked with her throughout the year. Also, for their outstanding work on committees, Mrs. Chappell gave silver awards to her 1977 Committee Chairmen. They were: Paul Williams, Professional Standards; Enda Joe Thompson, Education; Dan Jones, Legislative-Political; Geraldine Bradford, Program; Linda Martin, Membership; Peggy Boone, Public Relations; R.L. Cunningham, Multiple Listings; Sue Bresie, Attendance & Hospitality; Susie Jordan, Make American Better.

In her retiring remarks, Past President Janie Chappell stated, "My message is one of sentiment, love, loyalty, devotion and most of all pride." She was most proud of the growth in membership during 1977. The total membership rose from 136 to 183. This rapid increase has won the Lufkin Board of Realtors the Membership Growth award to be presented this January in Austin. She also spoke highly of her most active supporter, her husband Roy. He had attended every convention with her this past year.

Installing officer for the evening was the Honorable Judge David Walker. Judge Walker and his father, Howard Walker are both past presidents of the Lufkin Board of Realtors. He also taught one of the first real estate courses offered in Lufkin.

The 1978 officers for the Lufkin Board of Realtors are: President, Tom Gann; President-elect, Roger Brock; Secretary, Bonnie Donovan; and Directors Travis Carrington, Charles Ford, Dan Jones, Bill Thompson, and Geraldine Bradford. Multiple Listings officers for 1978 are Peggy Boone, President; Norma Medford, President-elect; and Secretary, Sandra Pouland.

Awarded separately was Cleo Moore. Mrs. Moore served as Executive Secretary.

Christmas shopping brings out the true personalities of people

Each year around this time, an ever-moving mass invades the streets and stores of our fair city. The mass consists of a breed of individuals called shoppers.

People, in general, have always been a bit curious, but shoppers are a breed unto themselves. One can notice several distinctly different types of shoppers on the streets around Christmas. There are a few who obviously love shopping for Christmas and appear to have probably begun their Christmas shopping last August and now have time to shop for their few remaining presents with leisure.

A second group of shoppers make shopping with leisure difficult; they are the persons who obviously hate to shop for Christmas, and, therefore, approach the task with all the composure of a herd of buffalo in order to complete the task as soon as possible.

The third category of shoppers is dormant right now, but will emerge in full glory around Dec. 23. These are the procrastinators. They are also the ones who usually give sweaters that are two sizes too small, lamps that have broken switches and glassware covered with fingerprints. The choice merchandise has usually been cleared out by the time they get around to doing their shopping.

People are hard to change once they have gotten settled into their habits, so perhaps the best thing to do is to let the Christmas spirit carry over into one's Christmas shopping. Show patience toward the person who is obviously in a hurry, who does not enjoy shopping and who has put off his shopping until the last minute. Above all, although a twinge of jealousy is bound to surface, do not condemn the person who started their Christmas shopping last August. After all, they are the smartest ones of all.

Angelina County history series

Editor's Note: This is one of a series of articles reprinted with permission from the Angelina Bicentennial Committee from "Land of the Little Angel," an award winning book compiled by the Angelina County Historical Survey Committee and edited by Bob Bowman.

Somehow, we never questioned the authenticity of how Lufkin inherited its name. It was simply taken for granted. It was a story most schoolchildren were taught. When the Houston East and West Texas Railroad steamed into Angelina County in 1882, the railroad named the stop for Captain Edwin P. Lufkin, a civil engineer who helped survey the railroad route.

But did Captain Edwin P. Lufkin exist? Or was he in reality Captain Abraham P. Lufkin, a seaman, cotton merchant, Galveston city councilman and friend of railroad President Paul Bremond.

First Abraham P. Lufkin:

In 1880, two years before the railroad came to Angelina County, the Texas census showed Lufkin living in Galveston. He was a wealthy cotton buyer. He and his wife had two sons, both railroad clerks. Born in Maine in 1816, Lufkin had gone to sea as a cabin boy, became captain of his own ship, later abandoned the sea and settled at Galveston in 1845.

Lufkin devoted much of his business attention at Galveston to merchandising, lumber, cotton, ice-making and shipping. He was a stockholder in two cotton compress companies, a member of the Galveston City Council and warden of the Galveston Port.

Lufkin's ties with Bremond are unclear, but since his sons were railroad clerks, it is likely he had invested in the H.E. and W.T. In 1885, according to the Houston Post, Bremond died at Galveston at Lufkin's home. The Post described Lufkin as a "lifelong" friend of Bremond. Lufkin himself died in Galveston in 1887 and was buried in Episcopal Cemetery there.

Now, Edwin P. Lufkin, a name that hangs mysteriously over Lufkin with no beginning or ending.

Old newspaper clippings indicate an E.P. Lufkin was one of several men who held the title of Chief engineer when Bremond was pushing his railroad northward out of Houston. Even the Handbook of Texas lists Edwin P. Lufkin, "a civil engineer," as Lufkin's namesake. So do all Angelina County newspapers which have since dwelt upon the name. But beyond that, nothing.

City directories for both Houston and Galveston in the 1880's show no Edwin P. Lufkin. Houston's Public Library has nothing in its Texas or Houston files that bears the name. The same is true of Galveston's Rosenberg Library and Texas' 1880 census.

It may be that an early researcher or writer-long since forgotten in the mists of history—simply mistook an A for an E on the old H.E. and W.T. records carrying the Lufkin name, assumed for some reason that the E stood for Edwin, and originated an error perpetuated by newspaper writers and historians for nearly a century.

Could it be that Lufkin was really named for Paul Bremond's lifelong friend and probable business partner, Abraham P. Lufkin, a seaman and merchant? If so, landlocked Lufkin may owe its name to a sea captain.

LPD sees decrease in accidents during November

The City of Lufkin Police Department has received its summary sheet for the Selective Traffic Enforcement Program (STEP) for the month of November. During the month of November in the City of Lufkin, there were a total of 86 reported accidents, 12 injury crashes, no fatal crashes, 488 citations were issued, 70 warnings issued, 500 step charges files, 462 step charges Adjudicated, 416 Hazardous moving violations, 84 non-hazardous violations, 606 total hours worked by the STEP officers, and a total of 5,522 miles driven.

In comparison to the past two years of the STEP program during the November, there was a slight decrease in the number of reported accidents which includes injuries sustained and the amount of fatalities in the tabulation. There were 98 reported accidents in November of 1975, compared to 111 in the same month of 1976.

The larger amount of injuries sustained in a vehicle accidents occurred during the hours of 9 a.m. and noon. In all, there were a total of 102 enforcement hours worked during the time period of 9 a.m. to noon during the seven day week.

In summarizing the number of reported accidents over the past 11 years during the month of November: 68 were reported in 1967 during November, 86 in 1968, 87 in 1969, 124 in 1970, 109 in 1971, 121 in 1972, 137 in 1973, 135 in 1974, 98 in 1975, 111 in 1976 and 86 reported in 1977.

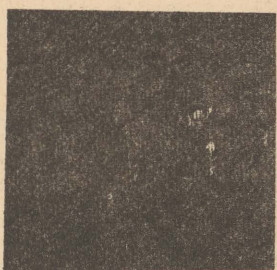

Where it may seem that the majority of accidents reported may occur during a specific month of the year, it appears that the figures are on an up and down basis. For instance, even considering the month of January, when we celebrate New Year's and sometimes experience some of the coldest times of winter, the month of August received the largest amount of reported traffic accidents so far this year; whereas last January received 15 less that amount. In 1970, January saw 93 reported accidents, whereas the month of November, 1970 received 124 accident reports during the STEP program. The largest amount of accidents reported in a year's time since 1967, so far has been 1973 with 1,539. 1974 came in second with 1,498, followed by 1975 with 1,492.

Alpha Beta Chi active during November

The month of November was a very active one for Alpha Beta Chi members. On Nov. 5 three members & their husbands attended a dance given by the Gamma Gamma Chapter in Tyler and won a prize for being the group traveling the greatest distance to the dance. Those attending were Mr. & Mrs. Lawrence Bayer, Mr. & Mrs. Gary Crain and Mr. & Mrs. Edward Williams.

Cauthen honored for 50 years with Southwestern

Representatives from Southwestern Life Insurance gathered in the Rex Club of the Hotel Angelina Dec. 7 to honor J.B. Cauthen. Cauthen was celebrating 50 years of service with Southwestern Life.

A native of Lufkin, Cauthen was once the only Southwestern Life representative in the city. Currently, there are two; Cauthen and Jimmy Nix.

Cauthen received two plaques at the luncheon given in his honor. One was from the Southwestern Life Beaumont agency and the other was from the main office. On hand to present the first plaque was Jack Nate, Branch Manager of the Beaumont Agency. Jeff Nicholson, Executive Vice-President of Southwestern Life, presented the second plaque.

Cauthen's son, Nelson, Cauthen's son, Nelson, made a trip from Dallas to attend the luncheon. Mrs. Cauthen, however, was unable to attend due to illness.

The honoree began working for Southwestern Life before his 21st birthday and reminisced during the luncheon about the days when policies were handwritten and the depression era. He said that during the depression, it was not unusual for a policy holder to pay with home grown black-eyed peas or ham. The food, he added, was usually appreciated just as much as money, if not more.

The 71-year-old Cauthen is still active in the insurance business and has no plans to retire. When asked if he would make any changes in his life were he able to live it again, Cauthen replied, "If I had it to do over again, I'd do it the same way."

Host Lions hear AC play excerpt

Members of the Lufkin Hosts Lions Club heard one of the popular songs from the play "Man of La Mancha", which was performed at Angelina College, during their recent meeting. Glen Saunders, Minister of Youth and Music at the First Baptist Church of Lufkin, presented the song during the meeting and will also be playing a major role in the musical.

According to Saunders, the play was held December 7, 8, 9 and 10, in the Fine Arts auditorium. Bill Trout, Assistant to the President of Lufkin Industries Inc. presented the second half of the program as he discussed Lufkin Industry growth and value to Lufkin and the East Texas area.

Next week, Jay Tinkle, who is touring with the "Up with People" group, will be there for the Host Lions' special Christmas program.

In other activities, the Lions of Lufkin will be continuing ringing bells for the Salvation Army as they do their part Saturday, Dec. 17.

Also, the word is that everything is all set for the Lions' rodeo, to be held April 26, 27, 28 and 29 of next year. The Lions say that next year's rodeo will be even better than this past year's performance.

The Host Lions meet each Tuesday at noon in the Hotel Angelina banquet room. Mike Mathis is the President.

Portable electric heaters give extra heat the easy way

Portable electric heaters give extra heat the easy way, and they save energy, says Mrs. Linda McCormack, a Family Resource Management Specialist.

These heaters add extra heat when it's needed—in bathrooms, for example, and they heat occasionally used areas, such as garage workrooms, which usually have no heating facilities, she says.

They save energy by giving the exact heat needed to certain areas, and that keeps consumers from overheating a whole ouse just to make one area warmer, the specialist says.

Mrs. McCormack is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Portable heaters, of course, are easy to move from one room to another, and they can be plugged in to any electrical outlet, she adds.

my corner....

by Jim Daher

Lst week Earl Campbell visited New York and when he returned home his luggage was noticeably heavier. He was carrying the Heisman Trophy. In the world of college football there is no higher tribute to be paid than the Heisman, and Campbell deserved such honors.

Even the farce put on by the network programmers won't tarnish the seriousness of this award. A few years ago I was fortunate enough to see Roger Staubach play three times prior to his winning the Heisman. Since then, I have become a devoted follower of its recipients. In recent years, players such as John Capaletti, O.J. Simpson, Tony Dorsett, and Archie Griffin (twice) have taken the award, and gone on to great moments in the N.F.L. I can't help but feel the hullaballou was unnecessary, and even tainted the honor paid Campbell.

As usual, Earl was the only person there to expect the award to go elsewhere, it's typical of his attitude. This year he followed every good performance with comments on his offensive line. He was always the first one to attribute wins to the defense, or the receivers, or anyone but Earl. After attaining the honor Campbell stated, "I deserved what happened to me a few minutes ago because I worked so hard. It means, 22 years of hard, hard work." That's all that college football's very best athlete had to say. He's more than deserving Until Fred Akers discarded the outdated wishbone offense, we never got to see the real Earl Campbell. As the fullback in Darrell Royal's backfield, his primary duty was banging into the line, with short gainers or fakes. Campbell's 1744 yards and 19 touchdowns this year showed he liked the change.

There is only one more accolade that can be paid Campbell, and that would come with a national title. This year's Cotton Bowl will feature the title game and the teams are both hungry for the honor. Notre Dame will bring half the All-American defensive team and Texas will bring Campbell and a third string quarterback. They'll also bring an undefeated record to the contest and a defense of their own.

Make no mistake that the best athlete on the field January 2, will be Earl Campbell. He'll be the one that reminds you of the fabled Jim Brown, being the same height and weight. Maybe someday in the future you'll have to decide between the two for the best fullback of all time.

"Pension plans can be a big headache for a small businessman. A specialist can relieve the pain.

Let's talk relief. Professionally."

Last Saturday, December 10, Adolf Rupp died of cancer. Rupp's 879 college victories is a milestone that's almost beyond comprehension. The greatest of all the college coaches is gone and the sport will surely miss him. Rupp at Kentucky was a legend, and the legend will go on. It's the man that will be hard to replace.

Joe Hackney Reports

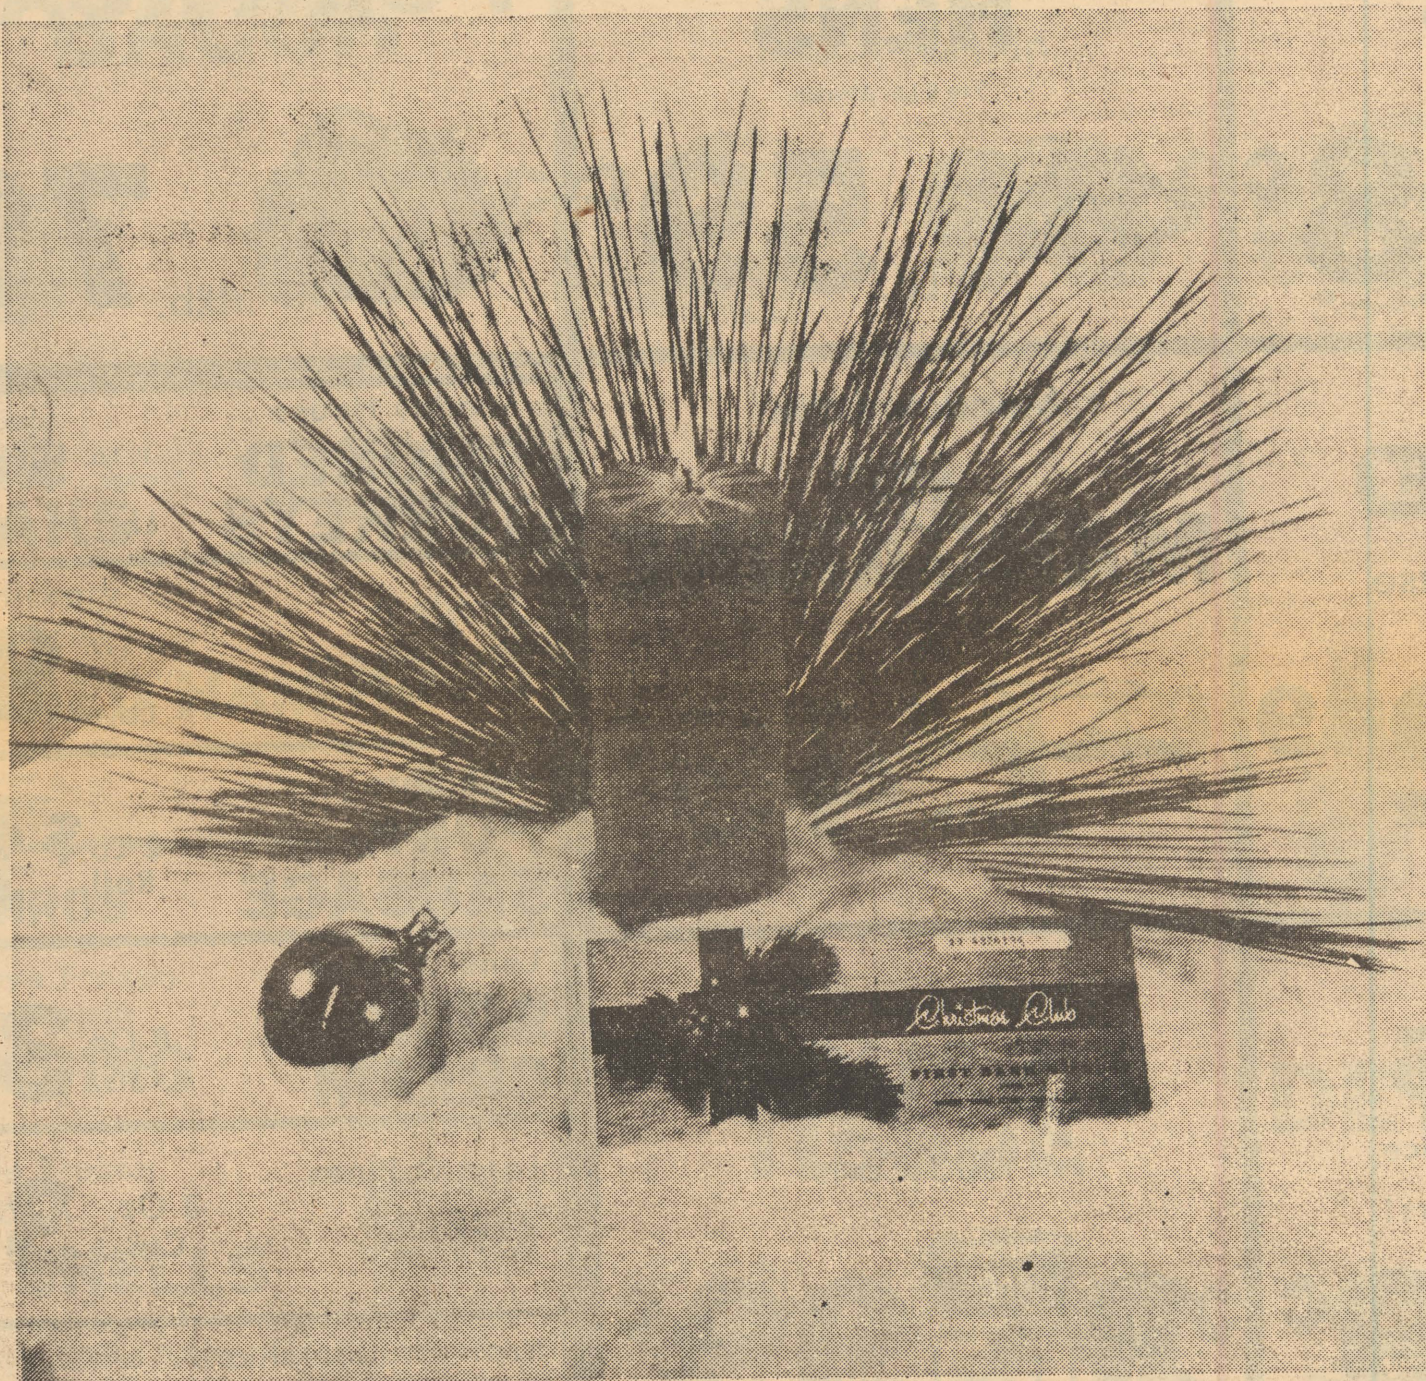

As you may have noticed, if you were not too busy with Christmas shopping, my report was not in last week's paper. The reason for this was that as the paper was being finalized to go to press I was still trying to make my way from Kansas to Lufkin via airplane. You would think that in these modern times a person could go nearly anywhere in a reasonable period of time if he had the desire and, of course, the money to do so. However the truth of the matter is that there are times when you could take a stagecoach and beat some of the airline schedules. One thing I did find out is that there is no such thing as planes being on time any more. If you think you travel slow, then look at your baggage which always finds a way of traveling a day or two slower than you do. Now that I've got that off of my chest maybe I can tell you about some of the highlights of the trip to Kansas. My original purpose of going to Kansas was to finalize arrangements to open an American Angler Tackle Center in Salina, Kansas. After business was out of the way, I joined Gary Hiedrick for a couple of days of quail and pheasant hunting. Rounding out our party were Ricky Green and Jimmy Houston. Both of these you may recognize as highly rated fishing pros who spend a week hunting pheasant in northern Kansas each year. Jimmy Houston also, I might mention, is joining the growing number of pros having a fishing show of his own to air this coming season. Gary Hiedrick hosts a weekly television series known as Kansas Outdoors which seen on a Topeka station.

The area that we hunted out of during my stay was that area around Beloit Kansas and ranging up to within 15 miles of the Nebraska border. For those who have not had the opportunity to visit this part of the world you might think of Kansas as a flat expanse of prairie land. This is not the case, as there are endless miles of rolling hills cluttered with old abandoned farm houses. There is quite a bit of grassland and these combinations provide ideal habitat for the pheasant. The bird itself is as large as a small chicken and very good eating. It likes to hold to the wooded draws bordering its food supply which usually was a milo or corn field. To hunt the bird we would put out a couple of hunters at one end of a field and the rest take the bird dogs to the other end of the field and slowly walk toward those hunters blocking the opposite end. Normally most of the shooting would occur when the two groups would come together at the end. Often the pheasant would run just ahead of the dogs and would not fly until forced to do so. This run would sometime be up to near a mile long. Only the male pheasant may be killed. There is never a open season on the hens. This poses no

Planning and Zoning Commission reviews changes

The Lufkin City Planning and Zoning Commission met in regular scheduled session last Thursday night in the Council Chambers of City Hall to hear arguments upholding and opposing a number of zone change applications to be sent to the Lufkin City Commissioners for final consideration.

Among the first items on the agenda that met approval was a temporary mobile home permit issued to Kenneth Wagner of 307 Traylor Street for the 11th time. Also okayed, was a permit to Joseph M. Mire of 1712 Allendale for an extension of his temporary mobile home location and

B.B. Burrows of Box 3082 Keltys for an 8th renewal on his temporary mobile home permit.

Three items under recommendation to the City Commission for annexation and permanent zoning requests were discussed at the meeting. One item concerned the development of A.E. Poulan property to apartment and duplex district located south of Texas Southeastern Railroad and east of Palmore Road and White Avenue. A number of Angelina County residents were present to oppose the recommendation. A few of the citizens spoke out against the proposal because of the problem of possible heavy traffic load. Others argued the possibility that land neighboring the property might be decreased in value, after it was mentioned by Poulan that the land might be used to construct an apartment complex and several duplexes. The recommendation was finally denied by the Commission for annexation and zoning request.

Tom Gann requested to the Commission annexation and permanent zoning change for a residential small subdivision development north and south of Whitehouse Drive, between U.S. Highway 59 South and F.M. 58. The traffic flow on the narrow section of Whitehouse Drive was the main concern of the four citizens present to speak against the matter. Gann mentioned to the commission that the development request for annexation and zone change would be half-way completed in construction in at least three years, saying that the flow of traffic would be a factor to be considered at that time. After further deliberation, the Commissioners finally approved the annexation and will be discussing the traffic situation in the near future.

The Planning and Zoning Commissioners finally approved the recommendation to the city commission for annexation and permanent zoning request for a residential large subdivision development, Brookhollow number nine, located south of and adjacent to Brookhollow numbers five and six at the end of Live Oak Lane. The hearing on annexations was then closed.

Under old business, the Planning and Zoning Commission tabled an approval for a temporary mobile home permit request by Robert T. Woodell covering property located west of and fronting on East Denman Avenue, North of Loop 287. Woodell was not present to speak on the request.

Under new business, a six month permit was approved for a temporary mobile home permit request by Roy L. Goeys covering property located at 1625 Sayers Street fronting on the west side of Sayers Street, north of Kurth Drive intersection.

Continuing downward on the agenda, approval of recommendation to the City Commission was made on a zone change application by Lufkin Industries from residential medium to residential medium district special use for a parking lot covering property including portion of the Hill Addition, fronting on south side of Jefferson Avenue between Falvey and Raguette streets.

The Commissioners also approved for recommendation a zone application by the El Chico Corporation from commercial to commercial district and special use, on item 16 which includes matters concerning private clubs. The property covers the existing El Chico Restaurant, south of Loop 287, west of and fronting on South First Street.

Planning and zoning Commissioner Raymond Moore made a motion Thursday night to deny a recommendation to the City Commission for a zone change application by Fred D. Boykin from residential medium to commercial district and special use for the construction of a private club covering property fronting on north side of Kurth Drive, Urviet Sayers and Lakeview streets. Three Lufkin residents were in attendance to speak in opposition to the request.

identification problem since the male or cock pheasant is probably the most brightly colored game bird in the world. They are a very strong bird and hard to knock down. Most people there use either number sixes or fours. I used a 20 guage Browning, shooting high base, Remington sixes, and for shooting over the bird dogs, this worked well.

The hunting license there for an out of stater is $25.50. That might sound high, but the state of Texas charges a higher price to out of staters that come here to hunt. The supply of birds in Kansas is absolutely unbelievable. The game and fish people there supplement natural reproduction by releasing hatchery reared birds. The people of Kansas are generally friendly and your chances of finding farmers that will let you hunt are very good. We even had several go with us and show us the better spots to hunt on their land. All in all, it is a very exciting brand of hunting and well within reach of most people who might want to consider a hunting vacation next fall to the rolling hills area of north central Kansas.

I guess I had better sign this one off and make sure it makes it to press, so until next time, good hunting and fishing. jeh

MACK...where fuel economy is standard, not an option.

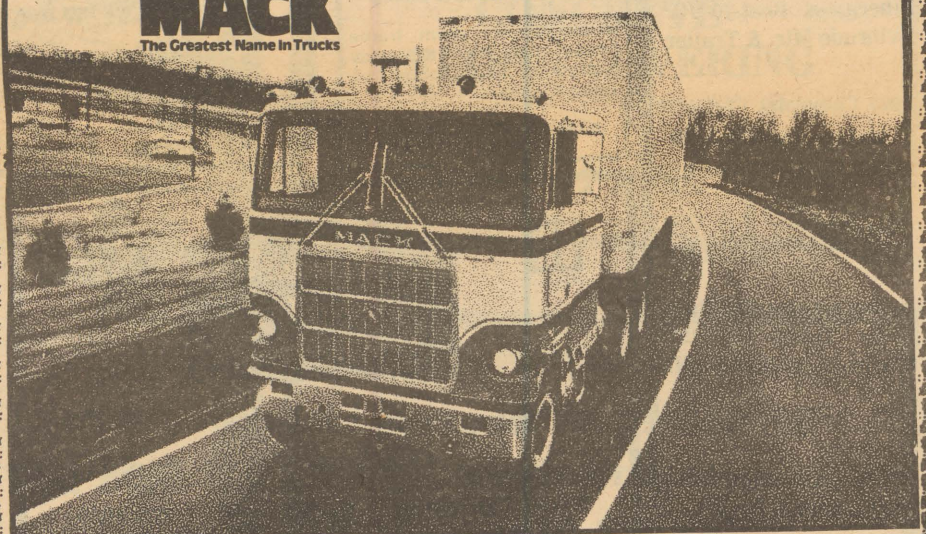

Fuel economy in a Mack starts exactly where you'd expect it to, in the engine. Standard! Mack diesel engines have delivered up to 12% better fuel economy than comparably rated competitive engines under similar conditions. That could mean a saving of $1500 every 100,000 miles. With other manufacturers, the options may include such items as radial tires and airshields. Mack offers options, too, but we start with a fuel-sungy engine.

Interested in increasing your profits? Sure! Give us a call. We'll be glad to stop over to explain built-in fuel economy. We have a Fuel-Caster chart on which we can compare fuel performance of a Mack with your present trucks.

Let There Be Light

Your telephone rings. It is your Realtor saying that he is coming right over with a prospect. You hang up the phone. What's the next thing you do? Turn on every light in the house. Why?

Because you want to give the prospect the best image you can of the comfort, beauty and livability you are offering. In other words, you want to sell a home not a house. And full illumination is the best way to give your home that "lived-in" look. Furniture and rugs and fixtures take on a warm glow from the proper lighting. Here are a few "bright" ideas:

Turn on every lamp in the living room, bedrooms and family room. Be careful about turning on the overhead lights in these rooms for it could be harsh and make the room look uninviting. Turn on every light in a storage room or closet. Go all out in illuminating the kitchen - the cheerier the better. Brighten up the bathroom too - but carefully choose the right wattage for bulbs by the mirror, pick the most flattering one. Remember, it's just as important to have lights on in the afternoon as it is for a night-time showing.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at LUFKIN REALTY, 1001 Lee, Lufkin. Phone: 639-2227. We're here to help.
