Interior Design Laws
This map reflects the legislative status of interior design as of May 2023.

Legend
- Title Act with Permitting Privileges
- Title Act with State-Specific Certification
- Title Act with No Permitting Privileges
- Title and Practice Act
- No Legislation with Permitting Privileges
- Practice Act with Permitting Privileges (Mandatory Registration)
- Commercial Interior Design: Certification Act with Permitting Privileges
- No Legislation; No Permitting Privileges
Interior Design Laws

Title Act with Permitting Privileges
- Connecticut
- Florida
- Georgia
- Illinois
- Iowa
- Minnesota
- North Carolina
- Texas
- Virginia
- Wisconsin
- Ontario
- Saskatchewan

Title Act with State-Specific Certification
- California

Title Act with No Permitting Privileges
- Arkansas
- Indiana
- Kentucky
- Maine
- Maryland
- Mississippi
- Missouri
- New Jersey
- New Mexico
- New York
- Tennessee
- British Columbia
- Manitoba
- Newfoundland & Labrador
- Quebec

Title and Practice Act
- Alberta

Practice Act with Permitting Privileges (Mandatory Registration)
- Louisiana
- Nevada
- Washington, DC
- Puerto Rico
- New Brunswick
- Nova Scotia

Commercial Interior Design: Certification Act with Permitting Privileges
- Alabama
- Oklahoma
- Utah

No Legislation; No Permitting Privileges
- Alaska
- Arizona
- Delaware
- Hawaii
- Idaho
- Kansas
- Massachusetts
- Michigan
- Montana
- Nebraska
- New Hampshire
- North Dakota
- Ohio
- Oregon
- Pennsylvania
- Rhode Island
- South Carolina
- South Dakota
- Vermont
- Washington
- West Virginia
- Wyoming
- Northwest Territories
- Nunavut
- Yukon

This map reflects the legislative status of interior design as of May 2023.