This contract is subject to the following stipulations:

- 1) The suspension or termination of membership in the NCWA by either party shall render this contract null and void. All rules and regulations of the NCWA apply as part of this contract. The NCWA shall have full authority to specify terms of settlement in any controversies under the provisions of this contract.
- 2) Eligibility: All NCWA Women's programs in good standing are eligible to attend. Teams must have a minimum of eight (8) weight classes filled at weigh-ins in order to compete and receive points towards the Collegiate Cup.
- 3) Financial Agreements: The entry fee for the NCWA Women's National Duals will be $350 and due by January 1, 2024. A late fee of $100 may be assessed for each week past the deadline. School purchase orders are acceptable in lieu of immediate payment. All fees are non-refundable. Failure to compete in the NCWA Women's National Duals after being accepted may result in a $350 fine by the host. Payments to be made to the host institution (Grays Harbor College).
- 4) Other Specific Agreements: The format of the tournament is dependent upon the number of eligible contracted teams as of the week before competition. Awards for NCWA National Duals will be awarded for the top-3 teams. All other arrangements including lodging and travel are to be handled by each individual institution / NCWA program.
- 5) National Points: All NCWA Women's programs, in good standing, are eligible to compete in the NCWA Women's National Duals. No team will be allowed to compete in the event without a signed contract and payment being completed. Teams leaving before fulfilling their contractual obligations will also forfeit Grand National Team Points. Collegiate Cup points will be awarded as per the 2023-2024 NCWA Rules and Regulations.
