5 EXTRACURRICULAR ITINERARY IDEAS

AFTER you've toured our region and selected Lancaster as your host destination, may we suggest building free time into your schedule to discover what Lancaster has to offer. While you're always welcome to explore on your own, below are a few ideas to help get you started.

1

■ CITY LIFE. If you get the opportunity, we recommend spending some of your down time exploring our downtown, which the New York Post recently called "the New Brooklyn." Rife with almost 300 attractions, you can easily do a little shopping, recharge at one of our many casual or fine dining establishments, or pop in for a refreshment at one of our breweries, our city's first distillery, or even a meadery—all within 20 square blocks.

2

■ AMISH. It's quintessential Lancaster. The rolling hills with lush grasses and crops, farms with windmills dotting the horizon, and horse & buggies sharing the road—this is what most people think about when they think of our region. Explore a part of Lancaster that uniquely defines us, and always will.

3

■ DRINK & DINE. Discovering the culinary possibilities in Lancaster can be a deliciously fun adventure. Whether you're craving something made from scratch, made-to-order, or made with true artistic flair, you'll find something to please every guest's palate. Dig in to a dish (and plenty of side dishes) of PA Dutch style cooking or continue the day's conversation over a plate of contemporary fusion, farm-to-table eats, French-inspired cuisine, or other unique fare. Sip and savor craft brews, wines, and cocktails from one of our many wineries, distilleries, and breweries around the county.

4

■ ART, CULTURE & MUSIC. Art lovers, history buffs, lifelong learners, and those with a passion for live performances will enjoy exploring Lancaster's creative side. From live shows, museum exhibits, and original works of art—there's always something here to soak up.

5

■ SHOPPING. Lancaster's scenic location may feel like paradise, but considering all the treasures one can find here, it's also a shopper's paradise. From farmers' markets, outlets, antique stores, boutique shops, and more—don't be surprised if your luggage is a little heavier when you head back home.
