DAY 1

Kentucky Derby Museum & Churchill Downs Backstretch Breakfast
Begin the day at two of the most iconic and beloved Kentucky institutions. Enjoy a traditional Southern breakfast as you watch the morning workouts of some of the finest thoroughbreds in the world. Then, tour the museum that is dedicated to the “most exciting two minutes in sports,” -- the Kentucky Derby.

Louisville Slugger Museum & Factory
Tour the World-famous bat factory and museum. Admire the world’s largest baseball bat before going inside to see how Louisville Sluggers are made. Have an all-star experience by swinging a bat just like Babe Ruth’s, facing down a 90-mph fastball and sharing a dugout with Mickey Mantle.

Frazier History Museum and Kentucky Bourbon Trail Welcome Center
The official starting point of the Kentucky Bourbon Trail in Louisville’s Bourbon District, groups will learn of Kentucky’s burgeoning Bourbon & culinary scenes. Explore The Spirit of Kentucky while being guided through the history, craft and culture of America’s only native spirit. A build-a-barrel activity and a hall stocked with hundreds of bourbons are highlights of this tour.

Flame Run & Payton Glass Activity Center at Glassworks
Flame Run occupies the hot shop, a welding shop, and operates a glass gallery and gift shop. The Mark Payton Glass Center develops “edutainment” opportunities in the Walk-In Workshop, tours, flameworking experiences, and gallery. Groups can craft a creation by blowing their own glass or enjoying flameworking experiences.

Louisville Mega Cavern
An underground adventure awaits in a 17-mile man-made cavern below the city of Louisville. One of the largest caverns in the U.S., the Mega Cavern is home to four attractions including tram tours, zip line tour and bike park.

Bristol Bar & Grille
Enjoy dinner at this group friendly Louisville original. This local favorite has been around for 40 years. Its menu offers American Bistro fare serving aged choice steaks, pasta, fresh seafood, salads, sandwiches, and appetizers— including their famous Green Chili Wontons.

Moonshine and Madness Tour
Long before Las Vegas acquired the nickname, Louisville enjoyed the dubious reputation as America’s Sin City because of the decadence associated with its distilleries, tobacco houses and horse races. Treat your group to a tour of Old Louisville where flappers, moon shiners and gangsters kept the neighborhood hopping with scandal during the Roaring 20s & 30s.

Belle of Louisville & Mary M. Miller
Enjoy a scrumptious meal aboard a treasured National Historic Landmark. The Belle is over 100 years old and is the oldest operating steamboat in the nation. The Mary Miller riverboat is named after the first ever female Steamboat Captain. Sit back and take in the views of Louisville as you cruise along the Ohio River.

Kentucky Peerless Distilling Company
Family owned and operated since 1889, Peerless offers behind the scenes tours for an up-close look at how to craft the finest spirits from grain to bottle—all under one roof. The urban distillery and vast family history are sure to make this experience one you won’t forget.

Captain’s Quarters Riverside Grille
Nestled along the scenic banks of the Ohio River, offering delicious seafood, international cuisine and an array of refined American fare—all served in a picturesque atmosphere. The ambience and gourmet cuisine will make your experience truly unforgettable. It is more than just riverside dining; it is a dining experience.
