FALL INTO FUN IN LOUISVILLE

DAY 1

Muhammad Ali Center
Preserving the legacy of Louisville’s most famous native son Muhammad Ali, visitors experience state of the art interactive exhibits and a biographical storyline of Ali’s values: respect, confidence, conviction, dedication, spirituality and giving.

Louisville Slugger Museum & Factory
Tour the World-famous bat factory. Admire the world’s largest baseball bat before going inside to see how Louisville Sluggers are made. Have an all-star experience by swinging a bat just like Babe Ruth’s, facing down a 90-mph fastball and sharing a dugout with Mickey Mantle.

Bristol Bar & Grille
Enjoy lunch at this group friendly Louisville original. This local favorite has been around for 40 years. Its menu offers American Bistro fare serving aged choice steaks, pasta, fresh seafood, salads, sandwiches, and appetizers—including their famous Green Chili Wontons.

Frazier History Museum
The official starting point of the Kentucky Bourbon Trail in Louisville’s Bourbon District, groups will learn of Kentucky’s burgeoning Bourbon & culinary scenes. Explore The Spirit of Kentucky while being guided through the history, craft and culture of America’s only native spirit. A build-a-barrel activity and a hall stocked with hundreds of bourbons are highlights of this tour.

Evan Williams Bourbon Experience
Located on Louisville’s historic “Whiskey Row,” in a 15,000 sq. ft. facility featuring an artisanal distillery, tours and tastings. This state-of-the-art distillery celebrates the legacy of Evan Williams, Kentucky’s first distiller and the namesake of Heaven Hill’s flagship Bourbon brand.

Dinner at 4th St. Live!
Dinner in Louisville’s premier dining and entertainment district features a mix of many leading national and regional restaurants great for groups.

Dracula at Actors Theatre
Enjoy an irresistible performance of Bram Stoker’s “Dracula” at Actors Theatre. Actors Theatre is known as one of the leading theatres in the U.S. and the winner of the prestigious Tony Award.

DAY 2

Kentucky Derby Museum & Churchill Downs Breakfast

Begin the day at two iconic and beloved Kentucky institutions. Enjoy a traditional Southern breakfast as you watch the morning workouts of the finest thoroughbreds in the world. Then, tour the museum that is dedicated to the “most exciting two minutes in sports,” -- the Kentucky Derby.

Conrad-Caldwell House Museum

Let the Ghosts welcome you with a “spirited” introduction to the mansion. Then follow in the “footsteps” of the ghosts of Conrad’s Castle as you are taken on a tour throughout the mansion and discover their favorite haunts throughout the historic museum.

Belle of Louisville & Mary M. Miller

Enjoy a scumptious meal aboard a treasured National Historic Landmark. The Belle is over 100 years old and is the oldest operating steamboat in the nation. The Mary Miller riverboat is named after the first female Steamboat Captain. Sit back and take in the views of Louisville as you cruise along the Ohio River.

Jack O’ Lantern Spectacular

More than 5,000 professionally carved jack o’ lanterns will illuminate a one-third mile trail at Louisville’s Iroquois Park at this event, which has been named the “No. 1 Halloween Event in the Country” by Country Living.

DAY 3

Breakfast at The Café

Come hungry, because The Café offers ample portions of fresh, home-cooked food with a Southern accent served with love in a comfortable, eclectic setting is why The Café has gathered loyal customers and friends since 1996.

Stoneware & Co.

One of the oldest stoneware manufacturers in the U.S. established in 1815. It has dedicated itself to the tradition and craftsmanship of transforming clay into enduring, functional art for the home, kitchen and garden. Take a factory tour paint your own pottery.

The American Printing House

Founded in 1858, it’s the oldest institution in the U.S. devoted to creating products for the visually impaired. Explore artifacts, photos and hands-on displays that showcase the history of Braille from printed publications to recorded books.

The Old Spaghetti Factory

Located downtown, offering a comfortable, casual and relaxed atmosphere in which to dine and unwind with your favorite beverage. After a long day of travel or before your day begins the Old Spaghetti Factory would gladly accommodate your group.

Butchertown Market

Groups are greeted with passed Mimosas or Champaign. Work the Metal boasts a collection of must-have clothes, jewelry and home decor; Cellar Door Chocolates makes bean-to-bar chocolates on site and has delectable bourbon balls; Moss Hill has locally made bath, body and pampering products; and Bourbon Barrel Foods makes barrel-aged spices, soy sauce and other cooking necessities.

Schimpff’s Confectionary

Over a century old and one of the oldest continuously operated family-owned candy business in the U.S. Located just minutes from downtown, a stop at Schimpff’s is a must to stock up on delicious hand-made confections.

Derby Dinner Playhouse

Enjoy a Southern buffet-style dinner and evening performance at one of the oldest and largest continuously operating professional dinner theatres in the U.S. The theatre has delighted audiences with its productions of Broadway musicals and light-hearted comedies filled with laughter, mystery, music and dance!
