

CORRELATION TO GO AND MAKE DISCIPLES

K
AGES 5–6

The following chart provides correlations between concepts taught in Kindergarten and goals of the New Evangelization, specifically those set by the USCCB in its document Go and Make Disciples: A National Plan for Catholic Evangelization in the United States. For a copy of the plan and for further information about the New Evangelization, go to www.usccb.org.

Goal I
89. To bring about in all Catholics such an enthusiasm for their faith that, in living their faith in Jesus, they freely share it with others This goal calls Catholics to continue to hear the Good News at ever-deeper levels. The call to holiness, given to every Catholic through baptism, consecrates each one to God and to the service of the kingdom. This deepening of faith, in holiness, fosters a desire to involve others in that faith, until God will be “all in all” in a transformed world.
STRATEGY	Student Pages	Catechist Pages
90. The strategy of this goal is to so deepen the sense of Scripture and sacrament that Catholics will pray more fully and, with a greater understanding of Christ’s call, live as disciples at home, at work, and in today’s many cultural settings. This goal also seeks a greater openness to physical, mental, and cultural diversity among Catholics. CORRELATION TO GO AND MAKE DISCIPLES

The Gather and Go Forth pages, Student Book and Catechist's Edition, help children recognize that the Church's mission is also their mission: to tell the Good News of Jesus to the whole world through words and deeds and to reflect the Church's mission to know, proclaim, witness, share, and transform.

Goal II

104. To invite all people in the United States, whatever their social or cultural background, to hear the message of salvation in Jesus Christ so they may come to join us in the fullness of the Catholic faith This goal means that we are to invite effectively every person to come to know the Good News of Jesus proclaimed by the Catholic Church. This goal goes along with the first one, for, as that goal is sought, Catholics will develop an inviting attitude as a general part of our everyday spirituality. This goal means not only that people are invited but also that an essential welcoming spirit is present in Catholic homes and in all our Catholic institutions: parishes, organizations, hospitals, schools, chanceries, and centers of neighborhood service. This goal also has ecumenical implications.

STRATEGY	Student Pages	Catechist Pages
105. The strategy behind this goal is to create a more welcoming attitude toward others in our parishes so that people feel at home; next, to create an attitude of sharing faith and to develop greater skills to do this; then, to undertake activities to invite others to know the Catholic people better. CORRELATION TO GO AND MAKE DISCIPLES

Goal III
117. To foster gospel values in our society, promoting the dignity of the human person, the importance of the family, and the common good of our society, so that our nation may continue to be transformed by the saving power of Jesus Christ This goal follows upon the other two: the appreciation of our faith and its spread should lead to the transformation of our society. The pursuit of this goal, however, must accompany the pursuit of the other two because evangelization is not possible without powerful signs of justice and peace, as the Gospel shapes the framework of our lives. The Catholic Church has developed a strong social doctrine concerning the common good—a tradition based on the proper ordering of society and supporting the inalienable dignity of every person. In the United States, this tradition has been cultivated in the advocacy of religious liberty; the pursuit of social justice, especially for those left out of today's society; just economic policies; a consistent ethic of human life; and striving for peace in a nuclear world.
STRATEGIES	Student Pages	Catechist Pages
118. This goal means supporting those cultural elements in our land that reflect Catholic values and challenging those that reject it. Catholics, who today are involved in every level of modern life in the United States, have to address our society as a system and also in particular situations.		Arts & Faith: T318, T325, T332, T335, T344, T357, T362
119. The transformation of our society in Christ particularly calls for the involvement and skills of lay men and women who carry the values of the Gospel into their homes, workplaces, areas of recreation—indeed, into all aspects of life.		Transform step: T315, T317, T319, T321, T323, T325, T327, T329, T331, T333, T335, T337, T339, T341, T343, T345, T347, T349, T351, T353, T355, T357, T359, T361, T363
120. This goal requires the strategy of strengthening our everyday involvement with those in need, of reflecting on the workplace and media, and of encouraging Catholic involvement in areas of public policy as a way of having greater impact on society's values.		Special Needs: T315, T321, T336, T327, T339, T347, T351 The Church Evangelizes: T325, T335, T341, T343, T355, T361
