

Celebrating Pentecost

Keep these ideas in mind as you study Unit 5, Session 25.

On the Feast of Pentecost, we celebrate the birth of the Church 50 days after Easter. Pentecost occurred nine days after Jesus' Ascension into Heaven. The Holy Spirit descended on the Apostles, making it possible for them to share God's Word.

PAGE 211

On Pentecost Sunday, we celebrate the work of the Holy Spirit in the past and in the present. We are guided by the Holy Spirit to serve the Kingdom of God.

PAGE 211

Pope John Paul II was the first pope from Poland. He was known as a peacemaker and a defender of the dignity of human life. He lived a life of openness and charity.

PAGE 212

To beatify and canonize a person, two miracles must be proven to be attributed to the intercession of the person.

PAGE 212

Pope John Paul II announced that 1985 would be a Jubilee Year for the Catholic Church. He called people to witness to their faith in specific ways. Pope John Paul II also instituted World Youth Day so that young people could renew their faith.

PAGE 213

Pope John Paul II taught us that we can respond to people being indifferent about their faith by showing how living as a Christian gives meaning to life.

PAGE 214

Pope John Paul II used the term New Evangelization to describe our call to serve as evangelists to those who have not yet heard the Gospel, as well as to those who need to hear it anew.

PAGE 214

Pope Benedict XVI established a Council for Promoting the New Evangelization, which studies and promotes the use of modern technology in the work of evangelization.

PAGE 215

The Fruits of the Holy Spirit are love, patience, faithfulness, joy, kindness, gentleness, peace, generosity, and self-control.

PAGE 215

We are called to be regenerated by the power of the Holy Spirit and to give witness to the saving grace and truth that is Jesus Christ. The Holy Spirit is at the center of our lives, ready to help us.

PAGE 215

For more games, activities, and resources related to Finding God, please visit www.findinggod.com.