

Faith Summary

Second Isaiah prophesied during the Babylonian exile. His message to the exiled Jews was to remain hopeful by remembering God's promise. Early Christians believed Second Isaiah had foretold the coming of Jesus.

Words I Learned

Promised Land

Ways of Being Like Jesus

Isaiah and the prophets offered hope during difficult times. All our hope is fulfilled in Jesus Christ. Offer hope to those who need it.

Prayer

Thank you, Jesus, for fulfilling what all the other prophets and priests and kings began. I no longer have to hope for some distant savior—you are with me now.

With My Family

Activity Think of a friend or a relative whom your family has not been in touch with recently. Write that person a card or send a small gift to remind that person that your family is thinking about him or her.

Faith on the Go Ask one another: In what ways can we offer hope to those in need?

Family Prayer Almighty God, help us remember to turn to you always, especially when we are in need of comfort and hope. Amen.

