

Faith Summary

The Temple in Jerusalem was a place where people could experience God's presence. After his Resurrection, Jesus Christ sent the Holy Spirit to gather a new People of God, the Church, where God is present today.

Ways of Being Like Jesus

Jesus loved the Temple, and he treated it as his Father's house.
Respect your church, other people, and yourself as temples of the Holy Spirit.

Prayer

Jesus, my guide, thank you for helping me to open myself to the Holy Spirit dwelling in my life.

With My Family

Activity What can your family display in your home to tell others that God dwells there? Ask your family members to help you find a place to display a piece of art or a picture showing that your home is a holy place.

Faith on the Go Ask one another: If you saw someone discriminating against another person, what would you do?

Family Prayer Dear God, help us to honor ourselves and others as temples of your Holy Spirit.
