

God's Revelation

Keep these ideas in mind as you study Unit 1, Session 3.

The Bible is divided into the Old Testament and the New Testament.

PAGE 10

God told Abraham about a covenant, or agreement he wanted to make, in which Abraham was to become the father of many nations. Abraham accepted this Covenant from God.

PAGE 10

Abraham, Sarah, and Isaac were the ancestors of a people known as the Hebrews. The story of Salvation on earth begins with Abraham. He is considered a holy person by the religions of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam.

PAGE 10

The Old Testament has 46 books and contains stories that are important to Jews, Christians, and Muslims. These stories tell of God's people before the time of Jesus.

PAGE 11

Christians believe that the Old Testament is God's Revelation, or communication of himself to us through words and deeds.

PAGE 11

The New Testament has 27 books and tells the story of Jesus and the early Church.

PAGE 11

The Lord's Prayer is a prayer that Jesus taught the disciples.

PAGE 12

God gave Moses the Ten Commandments, which tell us how to live as God wants us to live. The first three commandments tell us to love God above all else.
