

Roxanne Layton is a multi instrumentalist, and graduated from New England Conservatory with Honors in Recorder Performance.

She is the Percussionist/Recorder player for Mannheim Steamroller and has been with the band for 30 years. She is often called an Ambassador of the Recorder as she also plays Latin Jazz, Folk, New Age, and many other styles.

Roxanne has played with the Indigo Girls , John Williams and the Boston Pops, and with British Songwriter, Zoe Lewis , has opened for Judy Collins and K.D. Lang.

Her Albums are Kalm Heart and The Sound of Christmas Winds . She has recorded on American Gramophone Records Label , Holiday Musik 1&2, Renaissance Holiday, Dinner and Party.