Press Release

MCLANAHAN CORPORATION ACQUIRES EAGLE IRON WORKS

Hollidaysburg, Pa., January 23, 2013 — Eagle Iron Works, a well-known company with a worldwide reputation, has been serving the construction materials and aggregate industries since 1872. Based in Des Moines, Iowa, Eagle Iron Works provides a line of washing and beneficiating equipment including sand classifying tanks, log washers and screw washers.

On November 30, 2012, McLanahan purchased the assets of Eagle Iron Works. They will remain in Des Moines, Iowa and maintain their own identity in the market. The company will continue to offer Eagle Iron Works equipment, supply parts and manage its sales efforts through a coordinated system of dealers.

McLanahan Corporation is excited about this purchase and supporting this great classic line of equipment. McLanahan Corporation and Eagle Iron Works will both be exhibiting at the upcoming AGG1 show in San Antonio, Texas.

McLanahan Corporation provides custom engineered processing solutions to a variety of industries. Founded in 1835, McLanahan is now in its sixth generation of family ownership and operation. Headquartered in Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania, McLanahan serves a global market with locations throughout the United States, United Kingdom and Australia.
