The history of this building dates back to the beginning of the 13th century when a small mosque was erected on this site. It was rebuilt under the Mamluks in 1250, and it was the largest mosque in Cairo. It was built to house the shoes and sandals worn by the people of the city. The mosque has a large central courtyard, surrounded by arcades and columns, with a beautiful minaret and a large number of stained glass windows. The mosque is also famous for its intricate decorations and calligraphy, which have been beautifully preserved over the centuries.

The building is located in the center of the city and is easily accessible by public transportation. It is open to visitors daily from 8 am to 9 pm, and admission is free. The mosque is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and a major tourist attraction in Cairo.
