

Acknowledgements

The Aga Khan Award for Architecture is grateful to Professor Modjtaba Sadria for the organisation of the workshop on the topic of Tangible Elements of Multiple Modernities held at the Institute for the Study of Muslim Civilisations (AKU-ISMC) in London in May 2007. The Award would like to thank the faculty and students of the ISMC for their contributions to the workshop and the participants of the workshop for their valuable presentations and discussions, which are reproduced in this publication.

Special thanks are due to Mohammad-Reza Jalaepour for his assistance with the organisation of the workshop and transcription of the workshop proceedings, and to Nuha Ansari for her help with the production of this volume.
