Finally Free

Three Lessons in the Parable of the Prodigal Son
Bryan Wolfmueller

We wander through life looking for freedom, only to realize we have listened to the devil’s call to serve ourselves, our pleasures, and our lusts. Instead of experiencing freedom, we find ourselves enslaved to sin. We wonder if we have sinned too often or too deeply to ever be welcomed back to the Father’s house, back into His loving embrace. Have we lost our inheritance as children of God?

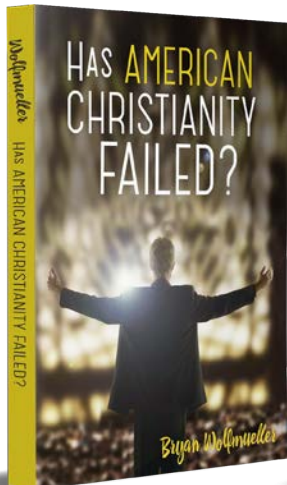

Author Bryan Wolfmueller digs into the popular parable of the prodigal son to bring hope and aid to our hurting consciences. Wolfmueller proclaims the freedom-giving Gospel that through God’s Son, Jesus, our place in the Father’s house is secure, and forgiveness and welcome are ours in His outstretched arms.

124719 $9.99

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Bryan Wolfmueller is pastor of St. Paul Lutheran Church and Jesus Deaf Lutheran Church in Austin, Texas. Previously, he was pastor of Hope Lutheran Church in Aurora, Colorado. Wolfmueller has a new hobby every day, but he always comes back to reading about Law and Gospel. He lives in Round Rock, Texas, with his wife, Keri, and their four children.

Has American Christianity Failed?
Bryan Wolfmueller

Shift away from American Christianity’s centrality of the individual—my will, my experiences, my decision, and so on—and instead look to the cross for true comfort, joy, peace, freedom, and sure hope.

124464 $18.99

A Martyr’s Faith in a Faithless World
Bryan Wolfmueller

Explore examples of martyrs like St. Stephen, St. Perpetua, and Polycarp and see that there is nothing the devil can do to us. No matter what lies ahead, Jesus is waiting for us at the end.

124579 $17.99

Dying to Live
The Foundation, Focus, and Shape of the Christian Life, Second Edition
Harold L. Senkbeil

In a dying world, turn to the timeless rhythms of Christian life and see how Christ’s death paradoxically brings about life, offered to you.

Luther's Works

Martin Luther

Thoroughly researched and faithfully translated, the Luther's Works series consists of Martin Luther's revolutionary Bible commentaries, sermons, prefaces, postils, disputations, and letters—translated and published in English for the first time.

This growing collection of Luther's writings is part of Concordia Publishing House's major endeavor of presenting Luther's untranslated works in English, adding to the existing collection of Luther's Works, American Edition, which was produced by CPH and Fortress Press from 1955 to 1986.

Gerhard's Theological Commonplaces

Johann Gerhard

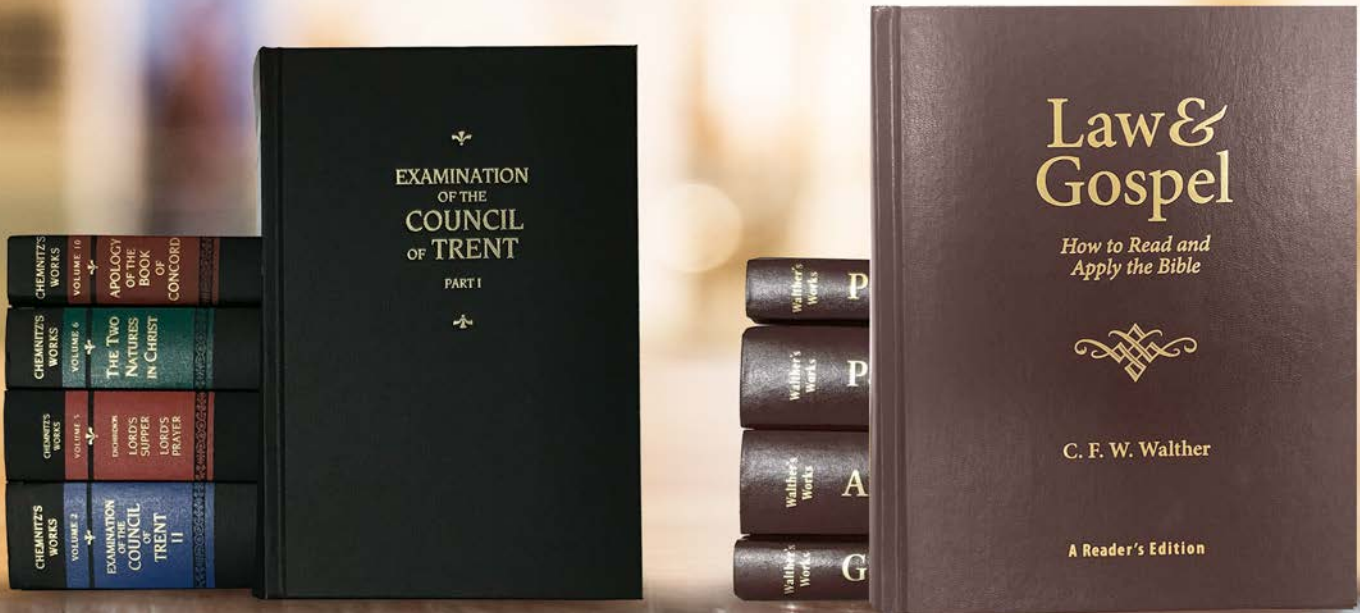

This series is the first English translation of Johann Gerhard's Loci Theologici, which is said to be one of the greatest doctrinal texts in the history of Lutheranism. Gerhard combined his profound understanding of Evangelical Lutheran theology with a broad interest in ethics and culture to produce significant works on biblical, doctrinal, pastoral, and devotional theology.

Gerhard's accessible style makes this a must-have on pastors' bookshelves. Each hardback volume features the English translation of Gerhard's Loci Theologici, a glossary of terms, name and Scripture indexes, and a list of works cited.

Chemnitz's Works

Martin Chemnitz

Martin Chemnitz (the “Second Martin”) is credited with solidifying and defining the Reformation movement begun by Martin Luther (the “First Martin”). Chemnitz was a major contributor to the Formula of Concord and is considered to be one of the greatest Lutheran theologians of all time.

His works have added valuable insight into topics including the Council of Trent, the Lord’s Supper, the Lord’s Prayer, the two natures of Christ, the Trinity, and creation. These English translations of his works give you firsthand access to some of the foundational texts of Lutheran theology in the sixteenth century.

Walther's Works

C. F. W. Walther

One of the most significant Lutheran theologians in North America, C. F. W. Walther (1811–87) dominated the theological landscape of the mid-1800s. He helped found the college that would become Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, and helped organize The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.

Walther’s Works are a treasury of sermons, books, and articles that played an integral part in confessional Lutheranism in America. Each book includes a preface, footnotes, indexes, and appendixes for further research. Discover manuscripts that are faithful to Walther’s excited, witty, original delivery.

Hosea
Concordia Commentary
 Kevin S. Golden

In this commentary, Kevin S. Golden works through Hosea’s notoriously difficult Hebrew, illuminating the prophet’s fortitude both in his marriage and as he watched his homeland decay from within. The commentary follows a clear trajectory as Hosea draws from the Torah, with the fulfillment of Hosea’s proclamation being found in Jesus Christ. Each section closes with a theological application that offers a direction forward for preaching and teaching that text.

156066 $69.99

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Dr. Kevin S. Golden is associate professor of exegetical theology (Old Testament) at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, where he has been a member of the faculty since 2021. He also serves as the dean of theological research and publication as well as the director of resident field education.

After receiving a BA in antiquities and religious studies from Missouri State University, Springfield (1995), Dr. Golden earned MDiv (1999) and PhD (2010) degrees from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis.

He has been husband to Joy since 1997. Their union is blessed with seven living children.

Concordia Commentary Series

Each scholarly volume provides an original translation and meticulous grammatical analysis of the Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek text. Each commentary fully affirms the divine inspiration, inerrancy, and authority of Scripture. Each passage bears witness to the confession that God has reconciled the world to Himself through the incarnation, ministry, death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ, His Son.

Apologetics and Polemics Series

This series takes up contemporary topics in faith and culture, helping Christians understand the challenges they face and how to interact with them faithfully. Volumes fit into one of two categories. The first category, Apologetics: Confessing the Christian Faith, addresses contemporary issues in the church’s interaction with the world—especially those that leave the Christian at odds with societal trends and assumptions. The second category, Polemics: Confessing the Lutheran Faith, contains entries that teach Lutheran doctrine and bring it into conversation with American Christianity. Contributors are experts in their fields and are known for their insight, confessional integrity, and clarity of writing.
