

SERMON APPLICATION GUIDE

Praying Together

WORSHIP & WALK

1. REVIEW + UNDERSTAND

1. Seek to begin your time with worship.
2. Pray together over your time together.
3. Read the entire book of Acts. (Just kidding....although that would be epic! Maybe you should.)
4. What from the book of Acts most impacted you and why?

2. ASSESS + APPLY

1. What have your experiences been like with corporate prayer? Any testimonies anyone would like to share?
2. Why is it that many would say corporate prayer is “awkward”? How do we get past the awkwardness? How do we help one another with this?
3. Why is waiting on the Lord so difficult for us? What does the waiting bring out of you?
4. What are you currently waiting on?
  - a. Pray for one another in regard to these things.
  - b. Waiting on God by Andrew Murray is an excellent devotional book that will help you in your waiting.
  - c. We would also recommend Waiting Isn't a Waste by Mark Vroegop.
5. Devoted means to be “busily engaged with.” What would it look like for us as a discipleship group to be more devoted together to prayer?
6. Who resonated with the vision Brock casted about our church becoming more so a praying church. A church devoted to fervent prayer. Why does this resonate with you?
7. Who specifically in your life is mourning who needs your prayer? Take time as a group to intercede on behalf of these folks.
8. First Tuesday is this Tuesday at 5:30 PM. Let's seek to prioritize this.
9. Who here would be willing to host a prayer gathering at your place sometime soon?

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Did you know there is a group of people who pray each week over the preaching of God's Word at Redeemer? If you would like to join this list and be sent prayer prompts weekly please reach out to Jeremy Hendon.
