

SERMON APPLICATION GUIDE

Lord, Revive our Worship Pt. 2 | Ezra 3

WORSHIP & WALK

1. REVIEW + UNDERSTAND

1. Seek to begin your time with worship.
2. Choose a few volunteers to read through Ezra 3.
3. Why is it important to study books like Ezra?
4. What does this chapter teach us about God?

2. ASSESS + APPLY

1. Which of these two words from part 2 of the sermon most resonated with you and why?
 - i. Activity (v. 7-9)
 - ii. Intensity (v. 10-13)
2. When you sing songs at Redeemer, are you engaging holistically? Are you responding to the Lord in a fitting way? What might help you grow in this?
3. What do you think is most fueling your personal worship in this season of life? What is most hindering it?
4. Let's dream together - what could it look like to engage in family worship on a regular basis? What are some ways we can go about this?
5. What serve team at Redeemer do you think would best use your gifts? Or what you are most passionate about? (Kids, Students, Young Adults, Parking, Greeting, Ushering, Set Up, Cleaning, Worship Team, Photography/Videography, Tech, leading a discipleship group, etc.)
6. Would anyone be interested in reading Revival and Revivalism by Iain Murray?
7. Pray together that God would revive our worship.
