COVID-19: The CHU Sainte-Justine Foundation postpones its spring events

Montreal, March 12, 2020 - Considering the current situation surrounding the COVID-19 (Coronavirus) and on the wise advice of the CHU Sainte-Justine experts and public health authorities, the CHU Sainte-Justine Foundation informs that it is postponing all of its spring events to a later date.

The Foundation is taking all necessary preventive measures to limit the risk of spreading the virus. New dates will be communicated as soon as possible.

More than ever, Sainte-Justine families are relying on the community's support. The Foundation invites the public to keep on donating: www.fondationstejustine.org/en
