Happy Summer!

I look forward to seeing you all virtually at the July Membership Meeting, where we'll hear from Darin Matthews on "Procurement Fraud." I'm truly excited to serve as your Talent Council Chair and to champion the continued growth of our volunteer community. Thank you to the members who have stepped up recently to take on new roles! Our chapter is growing, and I encourage all members to take advantage of the many opportunities available through your membership. Not sure what's available to you? Let's schedule a short call! Attending chapter meetings and workshops is one of the best ways to connect with fellow professionals, expand your knowledge, and build lasting relationships. Whether you're new to the profession or a seasoned member, there's always something valuable to gain. I'm here to support you, so reach out anytime with questions, ideas, or feedback. Thank you for being part of our chapter!

Milli "Meegee" Medina, CPPB, FCCM

Damaris Nazario
FUNDRAISER COUNCIL
CHAIR

Our 27th RTS is shaping up to be another outstanding event, and thanks to the incredible support of our members, vendors, and sponsors, we've already raised nearly $37,000! That's an exciting start, but there's still plenty of work to do. If your agency hasn't registered, please do so as soon as possible; every participating agency increases the value of the event and strengthens our Chapter. I also encourage you to review the posted committee list and consider volunteering; whether a few hours or a larger role, your time makes a real difference. Finally, please help us spread the word by inviting vendors, encouraging sponsorships, and sharing the event with your network. Together, we can showcase the value of public procurement across Central Florida.

Damaris Nazario, MBA, NIGP-CPP, CPPB, FCCM

COMMITTEE UPDATES

John Schmidt — INTERNSHIP / EXTERNSHIP

Hello fellow Chapter members! For the Internship/Externship Committee, this time of year is best described as the “lull before the storm!” We’re awaiting news on Fall 2026 and Spring 2027 registrations for our college and university outreach. In the coming year, the Committee intends to have active representation at the UCF, Stetson, and Bethune-Cookman career fairs, familiarizing students with our NIGP Chapter’s mission, raising awareness of the public sector as a career path, and promoting available internships and job openings. A key focus is helping college graduates consider purchasing and contracting as a career growth area. “Think Public Sector!” Stay tuned, more details coming soon!

John Schmidt, Chair, Internship/Externship Committee

Fatima Calkins — MENTORING

Let’s continue building connections and growing together in 2026! Our procurement community is full of talent, experience, and potential. Every day, we navigate complex markets, build strategic partnerships, and deliver value that shapes the direction of our organization. But the greatest strength of our function isn’t just what we do; it’s who we are. The Procurement Mentoring Program is our opportunity to invest in each other, strengthen our community, and build a future where every colleague feels supported, empowered, and inspired.

Coming soon: Keep an eye on the chapter website; a mentoring interest survey will be posted shortly so you can sign up as a mentor or a mentee.
