2026 RTS Hotel Room Raffle Survey. Reverse Trade Show Hotel Room for the night before the event (approx. $200 value)

Scholarship includes a hotel room for 1 night. Other expenses are the responsibility of the chapter member.

NOTE: This raffle is not related to the Chapter's Pro-D Opportunity Awards Scholarship.

THIS SURVEY is your only opportunity to enter this raffle and CLOSES ON August 31, 2026. Up to ten (10) members may be selected for this opportunity.

Additional details are available on the CFCNIGP website.

Mentoring Committee. If you are interested in being a mentor or a mentee, please contact Mentoring Chair Fatima Calkins at fatimacalkins@yahoo.com. Do you have questions or answers on procurement or Chapter matters? This is a great opportunity to build a relationship with another member! We are looking for both mentors and mentees.

Engagement. I want to encourage members to evaluate talents and strengths and identify if there are any committees or task forces opportunities that you would be willing to volunteer for in 2026. Committee chair, member, and RTS positions are available. We have a lot of work to do as a chapter this year and we can benefit from having active volunteers. Please do not hesitate to contact me or one of the other board members with any questions you might have.

Thank you!

OFFICER MESSAGES

As we head into the summer months, the Central Florida Chapter of NIGP is excited to continue bringing our members opportunities for professional growth, networking, and fun! We hope you will join us for our next membership meeting on May 22, 2026, featuring guest speaker Dr. Brian Robinson presenting "How to Maintain Motivation in Uncertain Times." This is sure to be an encouraging and timely discussion for all of us navigating today's ever-changing environment.

We are also excited to announce that our July 17, 2026 membership meeting will be held completely virtually and will feature Darin Matthews, Chief Procurement Officer for California Polytechnic State University, speaking on Procurement Fraud. This will be a fantastic opportunity to learn from a nationally recognized leader in the procurement profession.

Also, be on the lookout for upcoming chapter social events! We are currently working on some exciting opportunities for members to connect, relax, and enjoy time together outside of our regular meetings.

Lastly, the scholarship matrix is up to date on the chapter's website.

Thank you for your continued support of the chapter, and we look forward to seeing everyone soon!

Nick Canjar, NIGP-CPP, CPPO, CPPB
CFC NIGP Vice President

Angela L. Thomas, MBA,
CPPB
CFC NIGP Treasurer

I hope everyone has been having a wonderful spring. Just a reminder for all FAPPO attendees, If you have any scholarship money that you may redeem for this conference or for any other expenses, please send in all your receipts and redemption form for processing. The scholarship log is also available and up to date as of 5/7/26. The form can be found under member resources.

I hope to see many of you at the May chapter meeting on the 22nd. If you have any questions about registering for the event on the website, do not hesitate to reach out to me at treasurer@cfcnigp.org.

Happy May!

I am excited to share this months newsletter with all of you! There are many exciting things happening in the months to come. Please check out all the information and announcements throughout the newsletter. I look forward to supporting our members, families, and partners. Additionally, continue to stay engaged with information on our website for more information on upcoming events, conferences, courses, trainings, and so much more!

As always, I look forward to seeing you at the Chapter membership Meetings.

Yanique Reddick, FCCM
CFC NIGP Secretary

Hey, All!

I look forward to seeing you at the May Membership Meeting where we will hear from Dr. Brian Robinson, Deputy City Manager, Palm Bay on “How to Maintain Motivation in Uncertain Times”.

I am truly excited to serve as your Talent Council Chair and to help champion the continued growth of our volunteer community. Volunteering with the chapter plays a vital role in strengthening the public procurement profession and ensures that the chapter remains a vibrant resource for procurement professionals across the region. There are a wide variety of flexible opportunities available, and volunteerism turn into scholarship dollars!!

Please see the “Call for Volunteers” section of this newsletter and the updated Committee List posted to the website. If you are interested in serving as a volunteer on any of our committees, please reach out to me.

Katrina Ponzini , M.Ed., CPCM, NIGP-CPP, CPPO, CPPB, FCCM

CFC Talent Council Chair

Our chapter is growing, and I encourage all members to take advantage of the many opportunities available through your membership. Not sure what opportunities are available to you? Let's schedule a short call!

Attending chapter meetings and workshops is one of the best ways to connect with fellow procurement professionals, expand your knowledge, and build lasting relationships within our community. Whether you are new to the profession or a seasoned member, there is always something valuable to gain from participating.

Please know that I am here to support you. If you have any questions, ideas, feedback, or would like to learn more about ways to get involved, do not hesitate to reach out. I would love to hear from you and help you make the most of your chapter experience.

Milli “Meegee” Medina

CFC NIGP Member Council Chair

Thank you for being part of our chapter. I look forward to connecting with you soon!

Registration is open for the 2026 Reverse Trade Show

This is the chapter's primary fundraising event and helps fund professional development, scholarships, educational opportunities, and member events throughout the year. We need everyone's support to make this event successful. Please register, help market the event whenever possible, and encourage vendors and agency partners to attend. Every conversation, email, LinkedIn post, and referral helps. Interested in getting involved? Reach out to join a committee and help support the event behind the scenes. We'd love to have you on the team!

March 2026 Meeting Recap

The Central Florida Chapter of NIGP had a fantastic Spring Workshop on March 13, 2026, featuring special guest speaker David E. Nash.

Through his presentations, “Critical Thinking: A Critical Skill” and “Surely We Can Trust the Boss – Can’t We?”, David shared valuable lessons on ethical decision-making, critical thinking, and the importance of integrity in public procurement.

Attendees enjoyed engaging discussions, real-world examples, and practical tools they can apply in their everyday work. The workshop served as a great reminder of the important role procurement professionals play in maintaining transparency, accountability, and trust within their organizations.

STEP UP TO PUBLIC PROCUREMENT CERTIFICATION

NIGP Certified Procurement Professional (NIGP-CPP)

WHY ATTAIN YOUR NIGP-CPP

2,100+ approved NIGP-CPP candidates and counting....

When NIGP launched the NIGP Certified Procurement Professional (NIGP-CPP) certification, we knew from research that a competency-based certification for procurement leaders was need and wanted. And, we are very happy with the success of this certification. This is in no small part to the amazing group of professionals, volunteers, and subject matter experts who worked hard to elevate the work that each of you do by building a whole new way to get recognized for your competencies, skills, and abilities.

WHY EARN THE NIGP-CPP

NIGP-CPP is one of several ways a procurement professional can be publicly recognized for the achievement of competencies. The program is offered by NIGP - the leading public procurement association that serves as a trusted advisor to more than 2,600+ public agencies and 17,300 public procurement professionals throughout North America.
