What do Talent Council members say about the experience?

"My service on the Talent Council has provided me with an insight into the operations of the Institute as a whole. It has allowed me to meet and get to know procurement professionals from diverse backgrounds and create lasting relationships. My service has allowed me to leave an imprint on the volunteer leadership of the Institute for years to come."

Art Moore, NIGP-CPP, CPPO, CPPB
Chief Procurement Officer
State of Illinois Procurement

"Serving on the Talent Council has not only been fun and rewarding for myself, but the opportunity I have to leave a mark on the Institute as a young professional hopefully inspires other young professionals to get involved. Being able to network and talk to others about volunteering and how rewarding it is has allowed me to grow my professional and personal network. I am thankful to NIGP for the relationships and friendships I have created through volunteering."
