CLAIM OF BUSINESS CONFIDENTIALITY

Offeror's Claims of Business Confidentiality. (Check one of the below.)

- ☐ Offeror is not claiming any information within Offeror's proposal as confidential, proprietary, or protected. (Check box and skip to Signature section below.)
- ☒ Offeror claims the information set forth in the table below as confidential, proprietary, or protected and will submit with Offeror's proposal a redacted copy of Offeror's proposal, which must be clearly marked as such. Offeror understands, acknowledges, and agrees to comply with the following:
- Each of the following fields must be completed for each claim asserted by Offeror:
 - Proposal Section Reference: The page, section, or paragraph in Offeror's proposal containing the information claimed to be confidential, proprietary, or protected.
 - Confidential Information: A description of the information claimed to be confidential, proprietary, or protected.
 - Basis for Claim: Pursuant to NRS 333.333, only proprietary information may be labeled a trade secret as defined in NRS 600A.030\(5\). Trade secret:
 - Means information, including, without limitation, a formula, pattern, compilation, program, device, method, technique, product, system, process, design, prototype, procedure, computer programming instruction or code that:
 - Derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by the public or any other persons who can obtain commercial or economic value from its disclosure or use; and
 - Is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy.
 - Explanation: Explanation of how the information claimed to be confidential, proprietary, or protected meets the definition of one of the bases above.
 - Offeror may not mark pricing or Offeror's entire proposal as confidential, proprietary, or protected.
