Q1. Does the Addendum say each time what changed?

In the interest of impartiality and maintaining the integrity of the solicitation, the Multi-State Sourcing Team does not review responses or partial responses before the response opening date (i.e., after the deadline to submit a response to the event has passed). Furthermore, responses or partial responses should NOT be emailed to me which may disqualify the responder from participating in the event. Review the instructions provided in the solicitation- If you have questions, they should be asked by the Q&A deadline.
