

Pune District Education Association's
Shankarrao Ursal College of Pharmaceutical Sciences and Research Centre, Kharadi, Pune

Report on

"Indian Constitution Day"

27th November 2025

Shankarrao Ursal College of Pharmaceutical Sciences and Research Centre, Kharadi, Pune, operating under the Pune District Education Association's banner, successfully observed "Indian Constitution Day" on November 27, 2025 at 3:00 pm guided by the Principal, Dr. Ashok Bhosale. The program was designed to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India and educate the college community on its core values and principles.

The observance followed a structured protocol which began with Mr. Viraj Rupnar inaugurating the event, handling anchoring duties, and setting the stage with introductory remarks on the day's significance. This was followed by the central activity: a collective and solemn recitation of the Preamble led by Ms. Bhakti Hrpale, with all attendees participating to affirm their commitment to the Constitution's ideals. Two students, Arjan Khan (F.Y.D. Pharm) and Tejashri Netke (S.Y.B.Pharm), then delivered impactful speeches on fundamental rights, duties, and the historical context of the Constitution's drafting.

The Principal, Dr. Ashok Bhosale, addressed the assembly with an insightful speech that reinforced the practical application of constitutional principles in academic life and professional ethics. The formal proceedings concluded with Ms. Vaishnavi Shelke delivering a comprehensive vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all participants, faculty, staff, and guests for their presence and involvement. The "Indian Constitution Day" observance effectively met its objective of fostering a deeper appreciation for civic responsibilities and national identity among the students and staff.

“Preamble Pledge Ceremony organized to celebrate Constitution Day and promote constitutional values among staff and students.”

Dr.Ashok Bhosale Sir (Principal) delivering an inspiring speech on the importance of constitutional values during Constitution Day celebration.”

“On the occasion of Constitution Day, a student delivered a thoughtful speech emphasizing the importance of the Constitution and its ideals.”

Ms.Shubhangi Karkhile
NSS Coordinator

Mr. Nitin Neharkar
NSS Coordinator

Mrs. B. G. Shelar
NSS- Programme Officer

Dr. Ashok Bhosale