A Report on
Birth Anniversary of Rajmata Jijau and Swami Vivekanand
National Youth Day
12th January 2026

The Birth Anniversaries of great personalities provide an opportunity to remember their contributions and draw inspiration from their lives. The institution celebrated the birth anniversaries of Rajmata Jijabai and Swami Vivekananda with great enthusiasm and respect. The Programme started with Pratima Pujan by Principal Dr. Ashok Bhosale. Then students from D. Pharm, B. Pharm and M. Pharm gave speech on this occasion and shared about great work done by Rajmata Jijabai, the mother of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, played a crucial role in shaping his character and vision. She was known for her wisdom, courage, and strong moral values. Her upbringing helped Shivaji Maharaj become a great leader and warrior. She is remembered as an ideal mother and a symbol of women empowerment. Principal Dr. Ashok Bhosale Addressed students on this occasion. Sir also gave a light on Swami Vivekananda and his great work. He was a great spiritual leader and youth icon. He introduced Indian philosophy to the Western world, especially through his famous speech at the Parliament of the World's Religions. His teachings emphasize self-confidence, discipline, and service to humanity. His birth anniversary is celebrated as National Youth Day in India. 81 Students were Present for the Programme. Vote of thanks was delivered by Ms. Vrushali Randive.
