Profiles in Diversity Journal*® Announces 2025 Latino & Hispanic Leadership Award Winners

CLEVELAND, OH (February 24, 2025) – Profiles in Diversity Journal® is pleased to announce the recipients of its fifth annual Latino & Hispanic Leadership Award. These leaders have demonstrated outstanding professional achievement, a commitment to mentorship and community engagement, and a dedication to fostering leadership excellence in their organizations and industries.

The 2025 honorees represent a broad range of sectors, from law and finance to education and healthcare, reflecting the diverse contributions of Latino & Hispanic leaders in today's business landscape. Their accomplishments will be featured in the Q1 2025 issue of Profiles in Diversity Journal®, available online at www.diversityjournal.com in late March.

"We are proud to recognize these exceptional leaders and the organizations that support and empower them," said James Rector, Founder and Publisher of Profiles in Diversity Journal®. "Their leadership, expertise, and impact exemplify the value of diverse perspectives in driving success and innovation."

The following individuals have been named 2025 Latino & Hispanic Leadership Award recipients:
