

SCHOOL VACATION WEEK

What Does the Earth Know?

MONDAY, APRIL 19–FRIDAY, APRIL 23

Let creativity be your guide as you imagine and explore what the planet is asking you to bring forth in honor of Earth Day.

PLEASE NOTE: The museum is open to visitors Monday, Thursday and Friday of this week. The programs on Tuesday and Wednesday will take place outside or virtually.

Monday, April 19

ARTISTS DEMONSTRATION

Poetry Banners

10 am–noon and 2–4 pm | Garden Atrium

Artist Wes Sam-Bruce of Where the Questions Live is joined by bilingual artist, teacher and dancer Armando Silva for a special collaboration. Together, they will create a series of canvas banners inspired by Earth Day.

DROP-IN ART MAKING

Make-your-own poetry banner

10 am–4:30 pm | Garden Atrium

Respond to language and illustrations by Wes Sam-Bruce and Armando Silva as you create your own paper banner to take home.

WORKSHOP

Act of Becoming

1–2 pm | Meet at information desk
Register for limited in-person tickets at pem.org/aprilvaca

Wes Sam-Bruce and Armando Silva lead the group through a lively process centered on the possibilities of language. Leave the workshop with a list of personal mantras to help you lead a more full, centered life.
