

Medical Remittance Data

Gain visibility into how health plans adjudicate medical claims for a robust view of Mx/Hx activity.

Unique Insights

Payer insights into medically administered medications and procedures has traditionally been limited, but with Mx Remittance data from Symphony Health, there is clear line of sight into which health plans are paying for medical claims and how much providers are being reimbursed.

Our Mx Remittance claims answer key business questions not available historically

Payers	Patient	Providers
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Who are the health plans paying for claims?• What are the contractual arrangements between payers and providers?• How much are payers reimbursing for products in your market?• How do benefit designs vary within payers and across states?• Are specific payers bundling reimbursements?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• What is the patient's financial responsibility?• Are benefit designs dictating coinsurance over co-pays? What is the presence of deductibles?• How do peripheral charges impact the patient's cost burden?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• How much are doctors being reimbursed for procedures and medications?• How long does it take for providers to be reimbursed?• How does a provider's payer mix impact reimbursement?• Do reimbursement levels impact market share?

Understand the financial environment for practitioners prescribing your brand

Provider charge amount $4,125
The billing provider requested $4,125 for product A from the patient's health plan

Allowed amount by payer $3,719.25
The payer adjusted the reimbursement amount down to $3,719.25 based on a contractual agreement between it and the provider
This is the total amount the provider will receive for the medication

Patient coinsurance $743.85
Based on the patient's benefit design, he is required to pay part of the $3,719.25 in the form of a coinsurance of $743.85

Payer contribution $2,975.40
The balance of the reimbursement is paid by the health plan

Reimbursement by top commercial payers

Mx Remittance provides insight not only into how much providers are being reimbursed for medications, but it includes named payers for visibility into how reimbursement levels vary across health plans of the market

Next Steps

For more information, please email us at solutions@symphonyhealth.com.