

Butler Derrick, OStJ
Charleston Region Co-Chair
Chapter
Invested in 2017

Butler C. Derrick III, OStJ, was nominated and invested in the Order in 2017. He joined SJVC in February 2018 and started volunteering at the Fisher House/VA in Charleston. He was SJVC Young Member of the Year in 2019, elected to Friends of Fisher House Board in 2020 and became Treasurer in 2021. Appointed to SJVC National Committee in 2020, he presently serves as Co-Chair. In 2020 he joined the Medical Reserve Corps volunteering at COVID-19 testing sites. Later in 2020 he trained and completed an EMT course with Remote Medical Training which has allowed him to teach and certify those taking STOP THE BLEED classes with MRC, which are provided to the community for free. Butler also serves as a Co-Chair of the Charleston Region for the Order St John.

Butler lives in South Carolina with his wife Jessica and his two daughters, Addie and Gigi, as well as their dogs, Jock & Honey. Butler enjoys going afield with his bird dog Jock, beekeeping, sailing, cooking, and hiking the NC mountains trails with his family. He has worked in real estate in the Charleston area since 2010.
