

Kathryn Spotswood Lines Cox, DStJ, joined the Order in 2006, and became a Dame of Justice in 2018. She worked with her husband, Thomas R. Cox III to build the Connecticut Region of the U.S. Priory. A retired licensed Marriage and Family Therapist in Connecticut and Massachusetts, she is also an AAMFT supervisor. Kay is active in the arts, and served as chairman of the New Britain Museum of American Art. She also served on the vestry of St. John's Episcopal Church in West Hartford, Connecticut. Kay and Tom became badged volunteers of the VA hospital in Newington, Connecticut.

In 2018 Kay moved to Charleston, South Carolina, where she served as co-chairwoman of the Charleston Regional Committee and the 2019 Investiture and Rededication Weekend, which was hosted in Charleston. She is a committed volunteer at Fisher House Charleston, and a member of the Priory's Muristan Society and Pilgrimage Society. Kay has two grown sons and four grandchildren.