

Thomas Hyers, M.D., CStJ, has been a Chapter member of the U.S. Priory since 2015. He and his wife, Elizabeth Hyers, DStJ, have visited the St John Eye Hospital twice and are enthusiastic supporters of its mission. He has led the St. Louis (Midwest) region from 2015 to 2020. He has been a parishioner at the Church of St. Michael and St. George in St. Louis for over 30 years, where he has served as junior warden and twice on the vestry. He has been active in food outreach programs through his parish. He spent the first half of his professional career in academic medicine at the University of Colorado and St. Louis University—rising to the rank of the James and Ethel Miller professor of medicine and head of the division of pulmonary medicine at St. Louis University. In the last 20 years, he has practiced pulmonary occupational medicine and conducted clinical research in a private setting in St. Louis.
