

Ellen M. LeCompte, OSTJ, is a nationally recognized travel professional and community volunteer. Named annually since 2003 by Travel + Leisure magazine as one of the top 35 travel advisors in the United States, she heads LeCompte Travel which specializes in small special interest groups to the UK, Europe and Africa. In 2007 Ellen was on the committee welcoming Her Majesty The Queen and British dignitaries to Virginia for the Jamestown 400th Celebration, which led to collaboration on the book “The Queen and The USA,” published in 2012 honoring the Queen’s Diamond Jubilee. In addition to the Chapter of the Order of St John, Ellen currently serves on the boards of St. Margaret’s School, Scenic Virginia, Maymont Foundation Council and the Richmond English-Speaking Union.

Ellen grew up in the National Historic Landmark town of Waterford, Virginia, and graduated from the College of William and Mary with a degree in Economics. She and her husband, Pettus, joined the Order in 2012, and currently serves as the Executive Vice Chancellor of the U.S. Priory.
