

John Macaskill, OStJ, is a Founding Partner and Managing Director of Groton Partners, a private equity firm based in New York, and President of 2M Management, a family investment firm. Mr. Macaskill has spent the last forty years in the financial services industry in New York and London. John trained and qualified as a Chartered Accountant in Edinburgh, and upon qualifying moved to London where he worked for five years with Chemical Bank, which transferred him to New York – supposedly for eighteen months. He has now been in the United States for over 37 years! John worked at Bankers Trust and finally at JP Morgan before starting his own investment bank as one of the founding partners in 2003. John retired his partnership in 2017.

Mr. Macaskill serves as a Director to the Edinburgh International Festival American Board, chairs his village's Zoning Board of Appeal, is retired from the vestry of his local St John's church and is a retired member of the Scottish National Museum's American board. A Member of the Order of St John since 2012, John serves as a member of the Board of Trustees of the St John Eye Hospital Group.

Residing in New York, John is married to Bridget, and they have two sons and two grandchildren.
