

Sharon Kay Moore, OSTJ, has been a Senior Managing Director and/or firm practice leader in three of the world's largest international accounting/consulting firms: FTI Consulting, Inc, Arthur Andersen, LP, and Deloitte, LLC. She has provided valuation, transactional, solvency and fairness, and damages analysis and opinions on behalf of domestic and international clients, as well as the U. S. Department of the Treasury and US Department of the Interior. She has provided expert testimony in federal and state courts, U.S. Tax Court, U.S. bankruptcy courts, international courts of jurisdiction, including the World Court, binding arbitration and mediation. She has also served as the turn-around Chief Financial Officer of turn-around companies on behalf of private equity investors and was appointed to serve as the major voting shareholder on behalf of a well-known international sporting goods manufacturer for purposes of its sale negotiations.

Sharon was elected by and served a four-year term as International Regional Governor to the premiere multi-discipline international governance and standard-setting body for the valuation industry. Her governance region included the eastern U.S., Europe and Australia. She has been a featured speaker and conference organizer in her field throughout her career. Ms. Moore has published in various periodicals and in books published by Commerce Clearing House and McGraw Hill. She currently devotes most of her time to philanthropy, but she remains active in the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the American Society of Appraisers and the Alabama Society of CPA's.

Sharon has been a member of the Muristan Society of the Priory in the USA of the Order of St John since June 2017. She is enthusiastic about the St John Volunteer Corps (SJVC) and has been working with the new Birmingham region on behalf of their regional coordinators to develop a SJVC program there.
