2011

Charles S. Mosteller, MD, CStJ, is a Board-Certified Ophthalmologist specialty trained in Oculoplastics and Reconstructive Surgery, practicing in Mobile, Alabama. Dr. Mosteller received his MD from the University of Alabama School of Medicine after receiving his Bachelor of Science, cum laude, from The College of Charleston. Following an internship and residency at the Alton Ochsner Medical Foundation in New Orleans, the native Mobilian completed an Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery fellowship with internationally distinguished Professor Richard Collin at Moorfields Eye Hospital in London, England.

Dr. Mosteller is a Diplomate of the American Board of Ophthalmology certified in 1992 and recertified in 2002, 2012 and 2022. He is a lifetime fellow of the American Academy of Ophthalmology and member of the Medical Association of the State of Alabama and the Mobile County Medical Society. He serves on the Board of Trustees at Spring Hill College, a Jesuit college in Mobile, Alabama, and the College of Charleston Foundation Board in Charleston, South Carolina.

The Order of St John was a natural fit for Dr. Mosteller when asked to join by a friend and patient, the late Palmer Hamilton, KStJ. He was invested in the Order in 2011 at Grace Cathedral in San Francisco. He was appointed the Gulf Coast Regional Chair in 2013 and still serves in this leadership role. He has served as Honorary Secretary of the US Chapter of the St John Ophthalmic Association since its inception in 2018 and on the Chapter since 2020.

Dr. Mosteller and his wife of 38 years, Alexa Scott of Houston, Texas, experienced and were transformed by the Jerusalem Pilgrimage in 2013, the Malta and Italy Pilgrimage in 2014 and the Jerusalem SOA Symposium in 2018.

Charles and Alexa are the proud parents of two adult daughters, Mary Catherine of Auckland, New Zealand and Sarah of New York, New York.
