

Charles S. Mosteller, MD, CStJ, a Board Certified Ophthalmologist trained in eyelid disease and reconstructive surgery, received his Doctorate of Medicine from the University of Alabama School of Medicine after receiving his Bachelor of Science, cum laude, from The College of Charleston. Following an internship and ophthalmology residency at the Alton Ochsner Medical Foundation in New Orleans, the native Mobilian completed an oculoplastic and reconstructive surgery fellowship with internationally distinguished Professor Richard Collin at Moorfields Eye Hospital in London, England. For more than 25 years, Dr. Mosteller has treated thousands of eyelid abnormalities. Through his years of training and experience, Dr. Mosteller performs the most advanced forms of cataract surgery including sutureless cataract surgery with topical anesthesia.

Dr. Mosteller is a Diplomate of the American Board of Ophthalmology and the National Board of Medical Examiners, and he is a Fellow of the American Academy of Ophthalmology. He is a member of the Alabama and Mobile County Medical Societies. He also serves on the Board of Trustees at Spring Hill College and the College of Charleston Foundation Board. He is the Gulf Coast Regional Chair of the Order of St John of Jerusalem Eye Hospital and is Secretary of the S. John Ophthalmic Society of America.

Dr. Mosteller and his wife, Alexa, are the proud parents of two grown daughters.