

Susan Wright, OStJ, has spent her career in marketing and broadcasting. She is the Senior Vice President of the Suzanne Wright Foundation, Director of The Town of Palm Beach United Way, Ann Norton Sculpture Garden, and the Fellowship of Christians and Jews. She received a Presidential Appointment by George H. Bush to serve as Chairman of the Advisory Commission on the Arts, and later co-founded the National Committee for the Performing Arts at the Kennedy Center as well as the Johns Hopkins Women's Health Journey in Palm Beach. Susan also served as a Director of Pace Industries, Executive Vice President of the Palm Beach Civic Association, and Director and Senior Vice President of Sabadell Bank & Trust. In her earlier career, she was a reporter, producer, and news anchorwoman for top-market television stations across the United States.

Susan has a wide range of civic and volunteer leadership experience, putting to work her fundraising and organizational background. She earned a B.S. in Organizational Management and an M.S. in Business Administration.

Susan joined the Order in 2013. She serves as a Priory Chapter Member, Membership Chairman of the Palm Beach Region and former Senior Warden and Vestry member of the Church of Bethesda-by-the-Sea. She and her husband, Bob Wright, MStJ, reside in Palm Beach.