

Richard David Batchelder, Jr., Esq., OSTJ, is a partner at the global law firm of Ropes & Gray LLP, where he has practiced in the Boston office for nearly 30 years. Richard handles complex litigation matters for clients of the firm in courts all over the country. He served as Hiring Partner of the firm from 2011 to 2016, is a member of the Bar of the Supreme Court of the United States, and is listed in The Best Lawyers in America.

Richard is very involved in civic, charitable, and social organizations in the Boston area. He is currently President of the Somerset Club, member of the Board of Trustees of the USS Constitution Museum, Board of Overseers of the Massachusetts Historical Society, Council of the New England Historic Genealogical Society, Board of Directors of The Soldiers Fund, Board of Directors of Greater Boston Legal Services, and Proprietor of the Boston Athenaeum. He is a former member of the Board of Visitors of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Richard is married with two sons, and has a keen interest in genealogy, theatre, and history. He is a member of the Society of Cincinnati, the General Society of Mayflower Descendants, the Society of Colonial Warriors in Massachusetts, and other several other hereditary organizations. He is an award-winning Broadway producer and investor.

Richard is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill (BA) and Cornell Law School (JD). He joined the Order in 2012, was promoted in 2019, and is currently co-chair of the New England Region.