

Julian Victor Brandt III, KStJ, is a native Charlestonian, Citadel graduate and President, Julian V. Brandt Real Estate founded 1917. He specializes in the sale of Historic residential, investment and commercial properties. He has restored over thirty historic buildings in Charleston, utilizing conservation easements and Historic Tax Credits. Vic has served on numerous Commissions, Boards and social organizations. He served the City of Charleston as a member of the Board of Architectural Review reviewing over 4,000 applications ranging from minor alterations to major developments in the City of Charleston. He offered Congressional testimony for funding programs of The Department of the Interior and National Trust for Historic Preservation, measuring the effects of historic rehabilitation tax credits on communities. He has given lectures to The National Trust for Historic Preservation and National Association of Realtors and governmental bodies on Historic District Zoning Administration and other topics. He has written numerous articles on real estate and local history for various publications. A founding member of The National Alliance of Preservation Commissions, the organization funded by the Department of The Interior represents over 1,000 historic districts across the country providing training for Historic District Administration. He was appointed by the South Carolina Legislature, to the Old Exchange Building Commission. He also served Child Soldier Relief, Washington, DC, The Preservation Society of Charleston, The College Preparatory School Board of Directors and South Carolina Association of Independent Private Schools. Charleston Renaissance Weekend Resource Panelist. He just concluded his term as President of the American Friends of St George's and Descendants of the Knights of the Garter, College of St George Windsor Castle. For his service, he was presented to Her Majesty The Queen.

Appointed a Member of the Order of St John in 2006 and appointed Charleston Regional Committee Chair in 2009, he was elected to the Priory Chapter in 2012 where he assisted in securing co-sponsorship of the Priory's first USAID Grant. In 2013 he was appointed to the Best Practices Committee, resulting in the Regional Committee Guidelines adopted in 2014, followed by the Regional Committee Handbook of 2018. He served as a Member of the St John Volunteer Corps Study Committee and several other special committees and projects. He has visited the St John Eye Hospital in Jerusalem, Clinics and Mobile Outreach Programs twice, spending a week living in the Hospital and witnessing the great work of the Order.

Vic and his wife Anne are the proud parents of three children, Evelyn, OStJ, Myles, OStJ, and Victor IV.