

Erwin Wilcox Morrison, OSTJ, joined the Order in 2015 and became an Officer in 2019. She is active in the Charleston Region and served as a member of the 2019 Charleston Investiture Committee. She is a volunteer at Fisher House Charleston.

Ms. Morrison is a member of the Board of Directors of Glen Raven, Inc., a global performance fabric company founded by her great grandfather in 1880. Most recently she was the Senior Executive Director for Greffen Systems, Inc., a green technology company. Prior to her work at Greffen Systems, Erwin was a founding partner in TE21, Inc., an educational software company serving the K-12 community. Before entering the private sector, Erwin spent ten years working for two governors and one U.S. President. Her work at the White House with George H.W. Bush in Intergovernmental Affairs focused on policy liaison responsibilities with the nation's governors and federal agencies. She was a health policy advisor to Governor Carroll A. Campbell, Jr. of South Carolina and Cabinet Director for Governor David Beasley of South Carolina.

Erwin is a member of the Colonial Dames and serves on several local Boards in her community. She resides in Charleston, SC, with her husband, Howell, and daughter Lilly.
