

Project-Based Youth Leadership Development

A FREE Professional Development Seminar for NYC Youth Workers

Wednesday, November 5th
10:00am – 2:00pm

A large part of leadership development work with young people is empowering them to assume ownership of projects that they choose to undertake. Whether it's a service-learning project, fundraiser, advocacy campaign, or recreational event, there are strategies youth workers can use to help students achieve success, process unexpected challenges, and reflect upon their work in meaningful ways.

During this half-day training, participants will:

- Discuss brainstorming and consensus building as the first steps toward project planning
- Learn to set realistic goals and expectations for what your youth will accomplish
- Review activities that encourage youth to use their strengths and interests during project development
- Develop an instructional framework for your group's next project

Space is limited. RSVP by October 22nd to Laura Jankstrom:
ljankstrom@ccnewyork.org or 212.673.1800 x 20.

This FREE training is being offered by Citizens' Committee for Children of New York, located at 105 E 22nd St in Manhattan.
