WinMX Group ceased operating in June 2007 but the WinMX Community didn't falter, WinMX World and its team worked tirelessly to get the users back online. This job was done in an Amazing 3 days and WinMX went from strength to strength. New users, new coders, and the eventual completion of a new patch aptly named the WinMX Community Patch by Eagle, an released threw the offical site patch.winmxconex.com

With the sudden re-appearance of WinMX.com it seemed only fitting that WinMXGroup.com reared its head and offered support for the continuing work carried out by the WinMX Community Team. Even if Kevin misses the point over on WinMX.com
