Installation packages for Audacity on GNU/Linux and other Unix-like systems are provided by individual distributions. The following distributions maintain regularly updated Audacity packages:

- Fedora
- Gentoo
- SuSE/Open SUSE
- Ubuntu:
  - packages.ubuntu release packages.
  - daily PPA packages built from Audacity SVN development code. Note: These should not be used as your production version of Audacity.
  - rpmseek for legacy Audacity packages.

Otherwise, we recommend either searching the web pages of your distribution for the latest information, or compiling Audacity yourself from source code.

System Requirements

We recommend using the latest version of GNU/Linux from your distribution that is compatible with your hardware specifications. Audacity will run best with at least 64 MB RAM and a 300 MHz processor.
