Displays

55. VirtuaWin v4.2 beta1

<http://virtuawin.sourceforge.net>
 Windows

Need more than one monitor but don't have the cash to spend? A virtual desktop might be the answer. You can have as many as nine with VirtuaWin, each found by tapping an icon in the system tray.

56. DisplayFusion v3.1.8

<http://www.binaryfortress.com/displayfusion/>
 Windows

If you're lucky enough to have multiple monitors, and you're looking to get more from the experience, try DisplayFusion. It gives each its own unique wallpaper (with integrated search on Flickr), the ability to display more with the Titlebars at the top of each window, hot keys to move windows from system to system, and more.

Broken Links: once you start clicking past number 49 the links are off by one picture....
Thanks for the great list though!

Are you sure that Adobe Acrobat.com provides free Online Storage?
The site state that Basic ($15 per month) & Plus plans ($39 per month) includes 2 months free each.
But the description of the Free plan does not say that online storage is included: only "1 online Workspace, 5 PDF conversions total, 3-person web conferencing, online office applications, and forum-based support" (acrobat.com/pricing.html).
Please be kind enough to clarify.
Thank you!
PS: You may also consider including free visual presentation software in future editions, such as the Visual Understanding Environment (vue.tufts.edu) and Freemind (freemind.sourceforge.net).

Greetings all!
Daafjay, you're right, Acrobat.com makes a big deal on the site about the $15 a month Basic plan, but there is a hidden Free plan. Which I know exists, because I've got one and I've never given Adobe a dime. As you note, it conspicuously does not state how much room you get for storage, but it offers some, because I've got at least 10 documents stored there. But it might not make the list next year if I can't store a lot more.
Those of you seeking Adium (<http://adium.im/>) there's only one reason I didn't include it: it's a Mac-only program. I made this list relatively Windows heavy, as reflects majority of our readership (and I had a lot of IM software to include already, five of which support Mac). But tell me what other great Mac-only freebies I missed; maybe the near future we can do Best Free Mac Software.

I'm trying to save this and it keeps taking me back to the signin even though I'm signed in to my account.
