

ICONIC ROSWELL

Fan Favorites

Roswell has so many great spots to check out that both locals and visitors love. Make sure to add these to your must-visit list.

- Take a stroll down Canton Street for a charming shopping experience
- Enjoy seeing the gardens and animals at the Chattahoochee Nature Center or zip above them on the Screaming Eagle zipline
- Head to Vickery Creek Waterfall at Old Mill Park for a picture perfect spot to enjoy nature. Don't forget to check out the covered pedestrian bridge.

Cheers to a Good Time

Grab your friends and family for a fun day of trying new brews and sipping wine. Gate City Brewing, Pinkies Up, From the Earth, Deep Roots Wine Market, and Variant Brewing all have distinctive personalities, so check them out.

Instagrammable Food

Roswell is known for its dining scene and offers everything from super casual to white linen upscale. Make a stop at these restaurants for a delicious meal or pick-me-up throughout the day: Crazy Love Coffee House, The Mill Kitchen and Bar, Adele's on Canton, Vuu Asian Bistro and Vintage Frozen Custard. Take a photo to share your experience and tag the local spot you're at.

Take in Some Art

Roswell's art scene is continuously growing through public art, performing arts and art galleries. Check out these spots showcasing public art around the city.

- ArtAround Roswell is a "museum without walls." See the multiple sculptures on display at area parks; it's a great way to explore the city and see art at the same time.
- Roswell Art Fund has added in artistic bike racks. See a couple of them at Friendship Park along the Big Creek Park Greenway and in Sloan Street Park.
- Multiple area businesses have gotten creative with murals. Gypsy Rose, Table & Main, Gracious Plenty, the RosWall, and Ann Jackson Gallery all have added fun touches to their buildings making them perfect spots for selfies.
